TORONTO — Men: Remember why you married your wife?

A Chicago marketing specialist doubts you can—at least, with any degree of accuracy.

Louis Cheskin said Tuesday, 95 per cent of the decision made in love—or, in the supermarket—are at the subconscious level. Only five per cent are made consciously or rationally.

Mr. Cheskin, director of the Color Research Institute of Chicago, told the Packaging Association of Canada 95 out of every 100 shoppers unconsciously make their purchases on the basis of the package, the brand symbol of the color.

"About five per cent are aware of product quality," he said, "and they consciously disregard the psychological factors such as design, color and other brand symbols that have no direct relationship to the quality of the product."

"Many a man marries a girl because he became infatuated with her—cute nose or her blonde hair. But what is the reason he gives for marrying the girl? Her remarkable character."

ROCK HILL, S.C.—Sir Winston Churchill, who won the Nobel Prize for literature in 1953, is a "very bad writer," a British author said here Tuesday.

Malcolm Muggeridge, former editor of "Punch," told an audience at Winthrop College that Churchill is honored for "terrible service" to the Empire, but his "prose style is the worst penned by man."

Muggeridge also likened the British monarchy to a soap opera and said that may be a reason for United States fascination with the Royal Family. "I think it's a God-awful bore, but there appears to be an awful public demand for it," he said.

LONDON, Ont.—The pastor of the church's Worthy Road Baptist Church Tuesday lodged a protest on behalf of his congregation against bare-bottomed dances scheduled to be performed here by a touring troupe from Guinea.

Les Ballets Africains, whose traditional native dances have aroused condemnation and praise throughout their North American tour, are to appear at the city's Grand Theatre Jan. 2 and 3.

Peter Dearing, general director of the theatre, said the company will appear bare from the waist up, as they did in Toronto.

Rev. Martin O. Wedge said: "I don't think it is a credit to the city to have these dancers perform here, not when we have high moral standards."

U.S. Historian Dies

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Mark Antony de Wolfe Howe, 96, prominent author, historian and educationist, died Tuesday. Howe was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for biography in 1924 for his biography "Barrett Wendell and His Letters". He was the father of Dr. Mark Antony Howe, Harvard law school professor, and Quincy Howe, an American Broadcasting Company news commentator.

The country home—which Kennedy is leasing for one year—is located in the heart of Virginia's hunt country, where riding to the hounds is a principal sport. Jacqueline Kennedy is an excellent horsewoman.

LONDON—The Earl of Kimberley, whose first marriage was attended by King George VI, was ordered to pay costs when his third wife was granted a divorce Tuesday. The 36-year-old peer did not defend the suit brought on the grounds of adultery with an unnamed woman.

TURIN, Italy—Prince Philip bagged more than 100 Mongolian pheasants Tuesday without missing a shot, said a man who claimed he saw it done.

Philip is the guest of Italian Marquis Luigi Medici del Vascello. They and six hunting companions spent the day on the Marquis' 9,000-acre estate. The eight hunters shot 446 pheasants, a gamekeeper said.

ROME—The honeymoon seemed over today for John Barrymore, Jr., and the Italian film starlet he wed five weeks ago amid a flurry of court actions.

Barrymore and his bride, Gabriella Palazzoli, got into an argument in a restaurant and exchanged slaps. Barrymore later collapsed.

DOCTOR TELLS SICK NIKITA

MOSCOW (Reuters)—Nikita Khrushchev today was under doctors' orders to stay in bed until he shakes off a feverish attack of influenza.

The latest report on the Soviet premier's health was relayed by Canadian-born industrialist Cyrus Eaton who left Moscow today after chatting with Khrushchev's wife, Nina.

Eaton said Mrs. Khrushchev told him the 66-year-old premier was "in bed ill with a chest cold and slight temperature."

"The doctors are not allowing him up yet," Eaton reported. "I don't think it's anything serious."

Temptation Too Great —Inmates

Some inmates have found it is too easy to escape from William Head prison and have asked to be returned to the New Westminster penitentiary. Brig. Roger Thierstein, of the Salvation Army, a part-time chaplain at the institution, said Tuesday.

Brig. Thierstein told Victoria North Kiwanis that some inmates find it difficult to adjust to new freedoms at the "minimum security" prison and seek to return to "temptation free" imprisonment.

The institution has no cells or electrified barbed wire fence and the disturbed inmates claim that all they have to do is walk out. They say they would rather be where there is no temptation.

Italian Scandal
Jail Term Meted

ROME (Reuters)—A Rome court Tuesday sentenced Giuseppe Montesi to 26 months in jail on charges arising out of Italy's biggest post-war scandal—the Montesi affair.

Montesi, 35, went on trial three weeks ago charged with falsely accusing former office workers of lying when they testified he left his office early on April 9, 1953, the day his niece Wilma was last seen alive.

Another Flag Bill Gets 'Talked Out'

(From Times News Service)

OTTAWA — Canada's traditional inability to decide on a national flag was demonstrated anew in the Commons Tuesday when the almost annual flag bill was "talked out."

The latest attempt to replace either the Red Ensign or the Union Jack with a new standard was a bill by Conservative John Smith (P.C. Lincoln) which was criticized

GEORGE HEES describes council

U-2 Flights Over Canada Continue

Two flights by United States U-2 aircraft have been made over Canadian territory since last May when a U-2 came down deep in Russia, External Affairs Minister Green said Tuesday in a written Commons reply.

Paul Martin (L-Essex East) asked whether Canada had taken steps to reach agreement with the U.S. about using Canadian air bases or space as the U.S. had done with Britain recently.

Mr. Green said all requests for U-2 flights are made in accordance with agreed procedures. It was not possible to compare these with the United Kingdom agreement since details were lacking.

The flights did not proceed beyond Canada and Canadian bases were not used. One U-2 made a forced landing in Saskatchewan last spring.

The government's proposal for a National Productivity Council was sketched in the Commons Tuesday by Trade Minister Hees.

He said the 25-member council, proposed by Prime Minister Diefenbaker at the October unemployment conference here, will be financed to the extent of $150,000 a year by the federal government. In addition the government will match contributions from private industry.

The council will aim for more efficient utilization of resources by Canadian industry.

Mr. Hees, speaking on a resolution prior to introduction of the legislation setting up the council, said it will be a completely new development in Canada. European countries have had great success with such councils, he said.

The Canadian council will be headed by an executive director. The membership will comprise five from industry and commerce, five from organized

Gov't Rapped In Fraud Case

FREDERICTON (CP)—A report released today charged that New Brunswick's former Progressive Conservative government permitted fraudulent stock-selling operations for political benefit derived from a "show" of industrial expansion and activity.

David M. Dickson, acting securities administrator who conducted an investigation under the Security Frauds Prevention Act, recommended consideration be given to laying of criminal charges against principals of the companies involved. Information and advice for this was being made available to the attorney-general.

The hearings last July and August were ordered by Premier Louis Robichaud, also attorney-general, who said he had information that investors, mostly from the United States, lost more than $7,000,000 to fraudulent stock-selling operations.

ROBICHAUD ordered probe

The companies named were St. Stephen Nickel Mines Limited, Canam Investments Limited, Trans-Nation Minerals Limited, Keinamet Development Corporation Limited, A. G. Powis and Company Limited, Seaboard Industries Limited and Atlantic Investments Limited.

PLACES BLAME

The report said it was "impossible" to come to any conclusion other than that the former administrator of the securities act, G. Earle Logan of Saint John, N.B., was subjected to interference both by then government members and the former public utilities board.

All members of the board, the province's investment licensing body, were replaced by Mr. Robichaud after election of his Liberal government last June.

Mr. Dickson's report quoted a letter allegedly written by Mr. Logan to C. R. Allen, former public utilities board chairman, saying "I am fed up with being kicked around by the attorney-general's office and then provincial secretary-treasurer Donald D. Patterson."

Mr. Dickson said that in his opinion the Criminal Code was violated by false representations made to the public in the promotional and selling tactics of the companies and individuals involved. Some of the individuals concerned were outside the jurisdiction of the province now.

Today, a small group huddled on an incomplete memorial emerging from the submerged and rusted bulk and paid silent, humble homage to those dead.

Anyone Remember Vin Fizz?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Whenever my earthly cares and woes start getting me down, I like to buckle on my Van Allen belt and go soaring into the great unknown with the House space committee.

As a mode of escapism, the committee's hearings are almost as effective as a prescription for tranquilizer pills, and a good deal less expensive.

Unfortunately, however, the committee has been semi-dormant during the congressional adjournment period, depriving me of a place in which to lose touch with reality.

The committee has, to be sure, issued a few reports recently on things like space hospitals. But when nervous tensions are playing an obligato on my medulla oblongata, the printed word just doesn't suffice.

It was, therefore, the hope of finding a substitute sedative that led me to the Smithsonian Institute recently to witness the enshrinement of a nose cone.

On this occasion, the U.S. Air Force was rendering unto the Smithsonian the first nose cone to be recovered after a space flight. It will be preserved for posterity in the National Air Museum.

The presentation was made by Lt. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, commander of the Air Research and Development Command, who accorded the nose cone a significant niche in the annals of space exploration.

Posterity, he predicted, will look upon arrow heads and spear tips as early implements of a new era.

As I sat there, contemplating the nose cone and listening to Schriever's narration, I began to get that far-away feeling that I was searching for. The sensation lasted, however, only a few moments.

As I was drifting back to this planet, I happened to notice that I was sitting under the wing of the "Vin Fiz" the first airplane to fly from coast to coast. This immediately broke the spell.

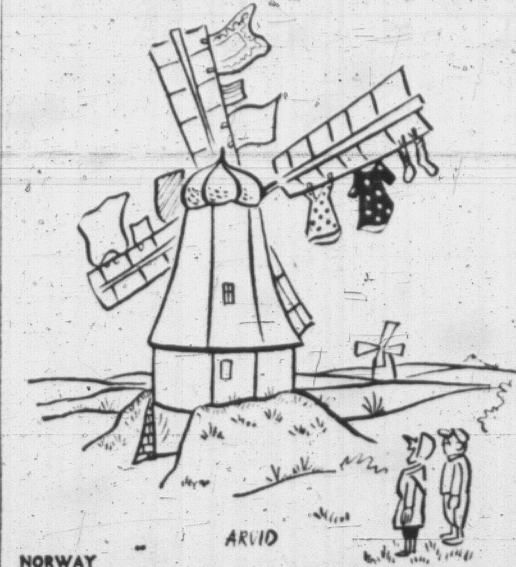

What grounded me was a plaque on the plane, imparting the information that the "Vin Fiz" was named after a soft drink, the makers of which presumably financed the flight as a promotional stunt.

It is, of course, a matter of record that many historic ventures were conceived by press agents. In that respect, the flight was no novelty.

But I fell to wondering whether anyone, in preserving memorabilia of the event, had remembered to preserve a bottle of "Vin Fiz."

Is "Vin Fiz" still on the market? If not, what caused it to fail even though the flight was a success? What did "Vin Fiz" taste like?

These are questions I hope the House space committee will take up when it resumes hearings next year.

FRANCE IN ATOMIC LEAGUE

Nuclear Funds Given De Gaulle

By HAROLD KING

PARIS (Reuters) — France Tuesday gave President de Gaulle the money for a nuclear striking force designed to put the nation in the same atomic league with the United States, Britain and Russia.

After weeks of debate, the National Assembly adopted a special bill providing funds for a five-year program to overhaul and equip French forces with nuclear arms at a cost of 12,000,000,000 new francs ($2,400,000,000).

The bill, twice rejected by the Senate, became law after a censure motion backed by both left and right-wing legislators failed by 62 votes.

De Gaulle and his government now have the go-ahead for atomic and hydrogen bomb development, guided missile research and construction of 50 Mirage-four supersonic jets to carry nuclear bombs until the missiles are produced.

A missile-equipped nuclear submarine also will be built.

The adoption of the bill after a debate lasting less than 30 minutes—one of the shortest on record—was regarded as a notable victory for de Gaulle.

UTILITY GROUPS BAND TO PRODUCE A-POWER

NEW YORK (AP)—Seven New York State utility companies announced Tuesday they are investing $10,250,000 in projects to produce cheap electrical power from the atom.

They hope to produce power at a price equal to that charged now in New York State for power from coal, oil or gas in conventional plants.

The utilities, organized as the Empire State Atomic Development Associates, are backing special research and development studies of two types of atomic power plants which might reduce present costs of atomic power.

The ultimate goal is one or more atomic plants producing 300,000 to 500,000 kilowatts electrical capacity, to be located somewhere in New York State, perhaps by 1967 or 1968.

Racial Bias Stories Shake U.S. Diplomats

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—Something close to a shudder shakes the frames of United States diplomats when stories of racial discrimination hit the headlines.

U.S. representatives at the 15th General Assembly of the United Nations give the impression they are keeping their fingers crossed on the discrimination question.

With the growing importance of African and Asian countries, — and the bitter struggle between the Soviet Union and the U.S. for Afro-Asian favor—the Americans see it as essential that visiting diplomats, at least, are spared racial irritation in New York.

U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth promptly demanded an inquiry by the Federal Bureau of Investigation recently when a number of African and Asian delegates received a hate letter.

The letter, after reviling the black and yellow races and referring to the "Roman Pope" and the "Jew Slavs," declared: "The Klu Klux Klan is on guard against the black and yellow peril sweeping in from across the seas."

DON'T WORRY MUCH

A Canadian reporter found that Afro-Asian diplomats—in conversations in the corridors and lounges of the UN—took a generally moderate tone on discrimination. They spoke mostly of the pinpricks of New York life rather than more spectacular events such as the hate letter, which they said might have been engineered.

The words of Ghanaian and Nigerian diplomats were virtually identical and went this way:

"This thing does exist, but it is improving and not everybody prefers to make a noise about it."

"We want to ignore trouble as much as possible as our contribution to overcoming these most regrettable customs," the Ghanaian said.

Although New York state has laws against discrimination in housing, some African delegates have had trouble in finding apartments. The U.S. delegation, however, has been eager to assist them on this.

SPOKE TO HOTEL MEN

Seventeen new countries were admitted to the UN this year and the U.S. delegation tried to anticipate complaints by discussing the problem with hotel and restaurant owners, urging their co-operation.

Some African delegates ran into rebuffs and arguments in restaurants because of their unfamiliarity with the tipping system. They were accustomed to the European system in which the tip is automatically included in the restaurant cheque.

"Strangers sometimes feel they are being discriminated against when it is just a matter of misunderstanding," said one African.

But the Africans were more disturbed by an incident in Georgia where a Ghanaian diplomat, observing the U.S. election at the invitation of President Eisenhower, was pushed around by election officials and called a "nigger."

TODAY'S TRAFFIC TROUBLE TIP

Lane Jockeying Bad Form

Much of the discourtesy encountered and engendered by Victoria drivers can be laid to sloppy lane driving.

An example sent in by R. Emery, 1851 Midgard, is illustrated above. The writer asks, "Is car 'A' breaking a traffic regulation while waiting for a traffic light and blocking off car 'B', who wants to make a right turn?"

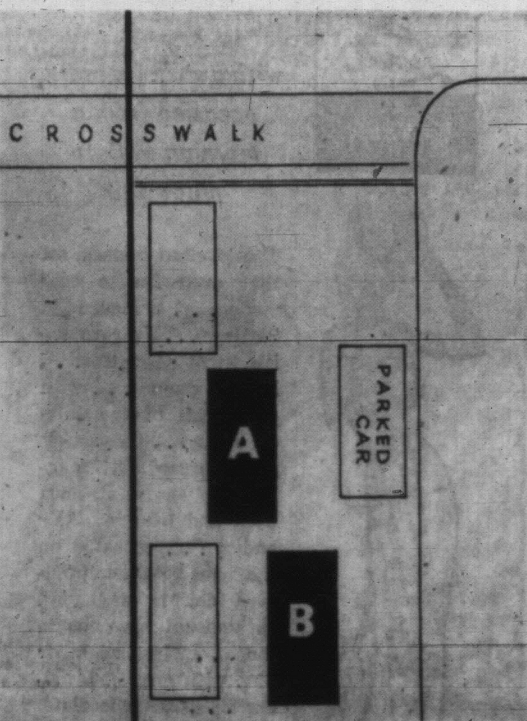

No, unless "A" intends to turn, because he must then be as close as possible to the centre line to be in proper position for a left turn, or as close as possible to the right hand edge of the road if he intends to turn left.

While there is no marked line between the centre line and the curb in this case, the same rule applies as if there were such a line. Ignoring it definitely is inconsiderate.

On a similar subject, A. C. Baker, 2420 San Pedro, asks where a signal to turn should be made—at the moment the change in direction is made, or half a block before?

GIVE NOTICE

Generally, as much of a notice of a turn as possible should be given—say as soon as the car passes the last previous turn. Others may wish to get out of the same lane, if following, and avoid a tie-up at the intersection, and they should be given a full chance to avoid an accident if another car turns in front of them.

But again it should be remembered that making a clear signal is only half the responsibility: The way must be clear, too.

Pedestrians—don't get that "run down" feeling. Walk with sensible care in traffic for Safe Driving. Week and every week.

HOME GARDEN

By HILDA BEASTALL

Menfolk Have Artistic Ideas

Doubly blessed are gardeners at Christmas time, for their hobby can be the source of many unusual decorative touches which will help to make the season memorable.

The only limits are the imagination of the gardener and the variety of material at his disposal.

Please do not think "his" is a word used carelessly, for many men will have artistic and original ideas for the use of plant material in the decorations for Christmas.

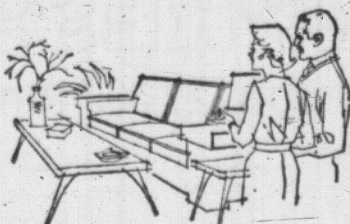

They may need a little encouragement to get started, but a discussion of what is needed, and showing them the bowls and other equipment you would use, will often get the men off on the angle "I'll show you what I can do!"

Brightly berried shrubs can be judiciously pruned at this time of the year, and the branches used in large containers for room decorations. They must be put into deep water overnight, and will hold their leaves and berries longer if the bottom ends of the stems are crushed with a hammer.

Evergreen cotoneasters and branches of pyracantha will contribute fine clusters of berries and attractive foliage.

The yellow winter jasmine is sure to be delightfully sprinkled with starry blossoms which can be cut in long sprays and used alone against a dark background, or combined with solid evergreen leaves of Portugal laurel or the native salal if you have it on your property.

Individual place bouquets in tiny containers (colored egg-cups for instance) would make wonderful conversation pieces. Violets, primulas, bud clusters of laurustinus, perhaps a winter crocus, a few snowdrops, or winter aconites—tiny things individually, yet with the possibilities of being assembled attractively to give pleasure indoors at Christmas.

HULAN JACK
... conflict of interest

Retrial Costs Negro Leader $25,000 Post

NEW YORK (AP) — Manhattan borough president Hulan Jack was convicted in a retrial today of conflict-of-interest charges. The jury's verdict cost Jack his $25,000-a-year post, the highest municipal office in the land held by a Negro.
Jack, 55, can receive misdemeanor jail sentences totaling three years under the conviction, plus $1,500 in fines. Sentencing was put over until Jan. 16.
Jack was charged with accepting an apartment remodeling job from a city business client. His first trial ended in a deadlocked jury five months ago. In the trial that ended Tuesday, the all-white jury found Jack guilty on three counts of a four-count indictment.

Exports Bleed Local Navy Reserve Force

Victoria's "export" of young people to the business world in other cities was remarked on here Tuesday by Commodore Paul D. Taylor, commanding officer, naval divisions, with headquarters at Hamilton, Ont.
Commenting on the quality of University Naval Training Division cadets at Victoria College, Commodore Taylor said: "If we could only get jobs to keep them here after they graduate, it would be a big help to the reserve here."
Many cadets who trained in Victoria, he said, ended up as officers in the reserve establishment at Vancouver. Commodore Taylor, a former schoolmaster at Brentwood and a 14-year navy veteran, was here on an inspection tour of HMCS Malahat, the Victoria reserve establishment, and other reserves in Western Canada—his first trip since taking his appointment last August.
He reported that reserve recruiting had been successful during the past year, with one-third more men signing on than in the previous year. The reserve now stands at about three-quarters of its authorized strength.
Commodore Taylor left by air this morning for Prince Rupert, later will visit Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary, Regina and Winnipeg.

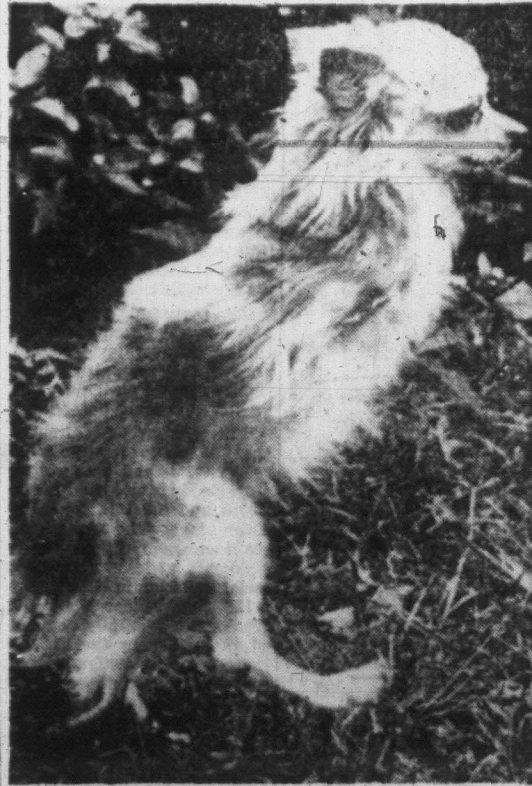

"Obviously, it will not be without difficulties."
Mayor Scurrah said he could not express any opinion "because I haven't seen the report yet."
He said he was calling a council meeting Friday afternoon "because we might as well discuss the thing and get a decision from council on what it wants done with the report."
"Regardless of what the recommendations are, I hope they meet with the approval of the council and the public."

'NEWS TO ME'
Mr. Dukowski said the reported compromise "is news to me." He said he had not been approached by the commission to take a promoter's job.
Mr. Mulliner said the commission had agreed that any press release on their report would be up to the mayor.
"None of us can say anything about it until it goes to council," he said.

proposal had the full support of Congo President Joseph Kasavubu.
After almost two hours of debate, the council adopted a compromise proposal by Sir Claude Corea of Ceylon to make the agenda include both a general item on the Congo problem and the Soviet item: "Urgent measures in connection with the latest events in the Congo." Under the latter would be listed the Soviet declaration.

The Russians gave a clear indication of the line they will take in a statement Tuesday accusing Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld of playing a "disgraceful role" of servility to the West in the Congo.
The statement blamed the Western big three and Belgium whom it called "knights of the money bags" for the latest events in the strife-torn African state. The Russians' four main demands:
1. Free Lumumba at once along with other imprisoned members of his ousted regime.
2. Disarm Mobutu's forces.
3. Set up a special Afro-Asian mission to find out who is financing Mobutu's army.
4. Expel all Belgian nationals from the Congo.
There are more than 2,000 Indian reservations in Canada but some are no longer occupied.

SERVICE INTERRUPTED
Canada's announcement that it would not join in the U.S. embargo on exports to Cuba has been hailed by the Castro regime as a friendly gesture.
Church officials here today blamed Communists for a bomb explosion in a Roman Catholic church whose pastor is a leading critic of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime.
The attack took place just after Tuesday night's vespers services. None of the 50 persons inside was injured, but pews and flooring in the Our Lady of Charity Church were extensively damaged.

BOMBINGS INCREASE
Several other bombs exploded in Havana's residential areas during the night, marking an intensified campaign by anti-government factions.
The bombings are just one of the growing signs of opposition to the Castro regime.
An increasing number of armed insurgents, including some of Castro's own soldiers, have taken to the mountains of western and central Cuba.

Ex-Governor Dies
TORONTO (CP)—Louis Orville Breithaupt, 70, lieutenant-governor of Ontario from 1952 to 1957; died suddenly in hospital on Tuesday after being taken by ambulance from his Kitchener home. Funeral services will be held in Kitchener, Thursday.

FOWL FLOWN TO CUBA

TORONTO (CP)—A Cubana Airlines Super Constellation freighter plane will fly to Havana Thursday with a cargo of "as many chickens and turkeys as we can load," an airline spokesman said today.
The plane, on the first such flight permitted by the department of transport, arrived here with a cargo of 66 cartons of Cuban tomatoes and peppers.

Ex-Detectives Convicted of Conspiracy

CHICAGO (AP)—Two former detectives were convicted Tuesday night of conspiracy to obstruct justice—the only conviction so far in the scandal that shook the Chicago police department last year.
One of the former officers, John Peterson, 35, was sentenced to nine months in jail. The other, Glen Cherry, 34, was fined $500.
They were accused specifically of replacing a camera stolen by Richard Morrison with another one to prevent his conviction on a burglary charge. The camera that was taken away in the switch was to be used as evidence.
Morrison, the so-called "babbling burglar," started the scandal with his stories that policemen had co-operated with burglars.

Barrage of Eggs At Mother, Child

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—A former New Englander whose wife and daughter had eggs thrown at them in New Orleans Monday, was quoted Tuesday as saying he has quit his job because of "harassment" by fellow workers.

The statement was attributed to James Gabrielle, formerly of North Providence, R.I., now working for the City of New Orleans as a meter reader.
Someone in a crowd outside the William Frantz School in the Louisiana city crashed an egg against the car as Gabrielle's wife, Daisy Josephine, and their six-year-old daughter Yolanda drove away from the school.
The child was one of 18 white children who attended classes in defiance of a segregation boycott. The school was integrated Nov. 14 by federal court order and one Negro girl is attending first grade classes.

Mrs. Roseella Switzer of Providence, regional director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, talked by telephone with both Mr. and Mrs. Gabrielle Monday night.

QUITS CITY JOB
Mrs. Switzer said Gabrielle told her he has given notice. She quoted him as saying the men in the shop had been giving him a bad time.

Mrs. Switzer said she also learned the Gabrielles are "in extremely strained financial circumstances."

Mrs. Switzer said she would try to find Gabrielle a job in New England.

Mrs. Switzer said Gabrielle told her he has looked elsewhere for work but whenever he gives his name he is told to get off the premises.

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Fourteen hunters have been killed in shooting accidents this year in New York State—about half of them in the regular big-game season which ended today.

TRAFFIC FINES

Jailed Top Nazis To be Released?

BERLIN (AP) — A West Berlin newspaper reported today the remaining three Nazi leaders in the four-power Spandau jail will be released within the next four months.

The Spandauer Volksblatt quoted an unnamed British diplomat as saying the Western powers would negotiate this month with the Russians on the closing of the prison.

Still in the prison are Hitler's former deputy, Rudolf Hess, 67, former Hitler Youth leader Baldur von Shirach, 54, and former armaments minister Albert Speer, 56.

The international war crimes tribunal at Nuremberg sentenced Hess to life imprisonment and the other two to 20 years each.

Unanimous agreement of the U.S., Britain, France and the Soviet Union is required for their release.

ACROSS THE PROVINCE Credit Union Warned

(Compiled from CP)

VANCOUVER — The attorney-general's department has told a Vancouver credit union it's carrying too many delinquent loans.

Elmer MacDonald, secretary-manager of the Mount Pleasant branch 177 of the Canadian Legion, said Tuesday the branch's credit union now is working out means to reduce the number of loans at the request of the department.

He said most of those in arrears had borrowed $100 from the credit union to buy a share in the Mount Pleasant War Memorial Co-operative Association, which sponsors bingo games.

An official of the attorney-general's department became concerned at the number of delinquent loans at the annual inspection of the credit union.

TOO MANY JOBLESS

VANCOUVER — Secretary Paddy Neale of the Vancouver Labor Council claimed Tuesday night that 9.6 per cent of British Columbia's labor force — excluding business and professional people — are out of work at the present time.

This high rate, said Neale, would be declared an emergency if it occurred in any area of the United States.

Neale told the council that federal government figures show that 45,000 persons — or 5.5 per cent of the labor force — are out of work in B.C. He said the total labor force includes some 96,000 business and professional people who should not be included in the statistics because "they're never out of work."

SPEED CAUSED CRASH

VANCOUVER — A surprise delegation of about 100 Sons of Freedom Doukhobors arrived in Vancouver Tuesday night to say goodbye to Stefan Sorokin, their spiritual leader. Sorokin was to leave today for his home in Uruguay.

The Doukhobites came here in an impromptu caravan from Nelson, Grand Forks and Osoyoos.

For about two hours they crowded around Sorokin, singing, praying and speaking.

B.C. HIGHWAYS CONTRACT CASE APPEAL

TOO FEW JURY TRIALS ODD, DANGEROUS TREND

VANCOUVER (CP) — Trial by jury is becoming progressively less common in Canada, says Magistrate Gordon Scott of Vancouver who describes the trend as "odd and dangerous."

Noting that 90 per cent of those appearing in Canadian courts last year were tried by magistrates alone, he said: "Sometimes we are asked to assume a responsibility too great for one man to bear."

VANCOUVER (CP) — An American contractor now in Oakalla Prison for contempt of court did not know his bank in Idaho had cashed a British Columbia Department of Highways cheque which should have gone to a receiver in Vancouver, B.C., Court of Appeal was told Tuesday.

Lawyer H. E. Hutcheon, counsel for C. W. Thornton, who was jailed by Mr. Justice T. G. Norris, on October 19, for contempt of a court order, said Thornton tried to have his bank return the cheque, but was unsuccessful.

Thornton and Highways Minister Gagliardi were both convicted of contempt for disobeying a court order that money which the highways department might have for Thornton must go instead to a receiver named by the court, Montreal Trust Company.

It barred Thornton from receiving the money, and was the result of a judgment obtained earlier by Burton Glazier, Seattle, against him for $25,000.

Mr. Hutcheon told the Court of Appeal that Thornton owed his bank at Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, $87,000.

He said the cheque from the Department of Highways in British Columbia was received at the bank and processed to his account during Thornton's absence.

Thornton never saw the cheque, though the procedure used by the bank was one which Thornton authorized in connection with other company business some time before.

Mr. Hutcheon said that Thornton, when he first was advised of the court order requiring the money to be paid to a receiver in Vancouver, verbally informed his bank of this.

When the cheque arrived unexpectedly and was put into his account, Thornton tried to "undo" what the bank did with the cheque.

With more than 500 telephone conversations per person each year, Canada's phone-talking rate is the world's highest.

SHOWING OFF, SAYS JUDGE

Driver Aimed Car In Youthful Feud

Dennis Sanders, 18, of 1131 Reynolds, aimed his car at a youth after a disagreement Oct. 31 and was convicted in Saanich police court Tuesday of criminal negligence in the operation of a motor vehicle.

He had pleaded not guilty. Sanders was charged after an incident in which his car almost struck Alan Hartman, 3404 Maplewood, at the foot of some steps leading to a store on the corner of Quadra and Rock.

DELIBERATE — Police claimed Sanders deliberately aimed his car at Hartman and that there was bad blood between the youths.

Sanders said he wanted to speak to Hartman, turned his car towards the store and the youth walked in front of his car.

Magistrate William Ostler said he was satisfied Sanders was showing off and that he let his feelings override his better judgment.

He noted criminal negligence means "wanton and reckless disregard for the lives and safety of others" and that it was the probable or possible, not actual, result that he must consider.

Sanders was remanded to Dec. 13 for a probation report and sentence.

Opening Shots Fired In Rhodesian Debate

LONDON (Reuters) — The opening shots were fired today in a battle over the constitutional future of the Central African Rhodesian Federation.

Federal Prime Minister Sir Roy Welensky was among the first to speak as debate got under way at a closed-door conference called by the British government.

Conference sources said Welensky adamantly opposed any breakup of the federation and its "great experiment" in multi-racial partnership.

African nationalist leader Dr. Hastings Banda of Nyasaland did not attend the three-hour session but it was emphasized his absence was due to tiredness and not any walk-out.

African leaders from the federation's two other territories — Kenneth Kaunda of Northern Rhodesia and Joshua Nkomo of Southern Rhodesia — both attended.

All three have prepared speeches demanding immediate breakup of the federation so that white rule can be ended.

At stake in the struggle is the future of nearly 8,000,000 Africans and 300,000 Europeans in a total territory of 500,000 square miles.

Car Tax Policy Confusing

By GORDON BELL
Times Business Editor

A firm decision from Ottawa on imported car tax valuation policy even if the tax structure stays up—would be better than the present state of uncertainty, according to Victoria auto dealers.

The way things are now the public is not sure if the government ruling imposed on the first of this month is going to stand—that is, whether imported car prices will be going up or staying the same—and the result has been that business has been "anything but robust," as one dealer put it.

Few dealers have raised prices yet, although a few models, invoiced after Dec. 1 with the new tax included, are up. And as further shipments are received, barring a change in the government order, prices are expected to rise.

Worst problem facing the dealers is writing orders for future delivery. They are in a position of having to order anywhere up to six months in advance and taking the risk of being caught short on stock or, possibly, having a large stock of higher-tax models on hand only to have the government rescind the higher evaluation order.

Generally the dealers do not expect the government to change its mind even though it has become evident that the ruling was most unwise. Rescinding the order would be an admission that the decision was taken hastily, under pressure from labor and without considering the economic consequences. Some way of saving face will have to be found by the government before it can restore the situation to normal.

Oil deliveries by Trans-Mountain Pipe Line Company showed a hefty increase during November with average of 113,559 barrels per day, compared to 105,677-barrel daily average in October. Deliveries in November, 1959, averaged only 86,615 barrels daily.

Following a 10-out-of-12 wildcat success record in the Jenner field of Alberta, Dynamic Petroleum and Western Leaseholds have staked sites for their 13th and 14th wells on their 73,000-acre lease midway between the Atlee-Buffalo gas field and the Cessford gas field.

The Cessford, Jenner and Atlee-Buffalo fields comprise the largest gas-producing area in Alberta with total recoverable reserves in excess of 1½ trillion cu. ft. and oil reserves in excess of five million barrels.

Cessford was developed by Canadian Delhi and Hudson's Bay Oil and Gas; Atlee-Buffalo by Canex and Home Oil; and Jenner by Dynamic and Western Leaseholds. The whole area stretches for about 70 miles.

Incidentally the Swan Hills area, developed principally by Home Oil, is now rated as the largest single oil field in Alberta with reserves rising rapidly to the billion-barrel mark.

Encouragement for A. V. Roe shareholders is a story out of Toronto that the company is investigating the coin-operated vending machine business.

The company recently entered the boat business with an arrangement to construct a new type of aluminum hull for a big American firm and a continuation of the diversification trend could prove rewarding.

Ottawa reports exports of uranium ore and concentrates in October down 26.2 per cent in value to $18,301,000 from the $24,774,000 of October a year ago. First ten months of 1960 showed a decline in exports of 13.2 per cent compared to same period last year as the contract "stretch-out" takes hold.

Progress report from Lafarge Cement shows hefty increase in sales, including exports, for first 10 months of the year. Increase was about 7 per cent over the same period last year despite a general drop of 16 to 15 per cent in consumption in B.C. Sales increase won't be reflected in net profit picture for year due to heavy capital investment, according to the report.

Even with drop in production over past few weeks, Canadian steel production is expected to hit a new record this year. Peak year for Canadian steel was 1959 with 5.8 million tons and 1960 could easily reach 6 million. Output for the first 10 months of this year reached 4.9 million tons against 4.7 for 1959 and unless production drop is extremely heavy in last two months the record will be reached.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe plan an extended trip through Canada and the U.S. but will continue to reside at their Victoria home, 3214 Henderson Road.

WORLD'S MERCHANT MARINE TONNAGE AT ALL-TIME HIGH

NEW YORK (UPI)—The tonnage of the U.S. merchant fleet slipped this year to 24,837,000, down 451,000 tons from 1959, Lloyd's register of shipping said today.

The authoritative shipping registry said its 1960 statistical tables showed the world merchant marine has grown 4,834,000 tons over last year's figure for an all-time high of 129,769,500 tons gross.

Tariff Bargaining Urged by Bank Head

HALIFAX (CP)—Possible changes in the Commonwealth preferential tariff system might be used by Canada as bargaining instruments to get concessions elsewhere, F. William Nicks, president of the Bank of Nova Scotia, said today at the bank's annual meeting.

It has become clear, Mr. Nicks said, that Britain is considering substantial changes in the Commonwealth preference structure as part of a bargain with Europe's common market, and other Commonwealth countries, including Canada, have expressed opposition to such a development.

In the current sessions of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, however, Canada, along with other interested countries, had a chance to exert considerable influence in turning trade thinking and policies in a constructive direction, Mr. Nicks added.

"In the light of growing pressure on Britain to amend the Commonwealth preferential structure, for example, would it not be wise for Canada to examine how we might use changes in our part of this structure as bargaining counters in an effort to secure changes favorable to us in the general European arrangements?"

Along with such steps, however, Canada should continue to strive for both a prosperous and more co-operative world, Mr. Nicks said.

"In the kind of world in which we now live, we cannot be divided on economic matters and still remain 'blood-brothers' in any political or strategic sense."

J. Douglas Gibson, general manager, in a review of the Canadian scene, said a clearer indication from the Bank of Canada to the business community as to the direction of its monetary thinking would be helpful in promoting more stable financial conditions and perhaps in encouraging a level of long-term interest rates less restrictive to the potential borrower.

U.S. Eyes Japan Trade

WASHINGTON (CP)—Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson Tuesday advised President Eisenhower there is a big potential for wheat sales in Japan. But he said Canada has taken over most of the market because of lower prices.

"Our wheat has been losing out to Canada mainly because of price," Benson reported following a tour of Japan.

"We have taken steps to adjust this by export subsidy but we must make wheat competitive on the market," he said.

Canadian authorities, asked for comment, said Japan favors Canadian wheat not because of price differences but because of high quality.

Japan is Canada's second biggest wheat customer and Canadians here doubt that the Eisenhower administration will make any new moves to cut into Canada's market with wheat surpluses.

But the U.S., struggling to maintain its gold reserves, is hungry for export markets. Like Canada, it has huge wheat surpluses.

ROCKETS ZERO IN ON TARGET

One of busiest hoop teams in Victoria these days is Morrison's Rockets, who are sharpening up shooting eyes for campaign in new Northwest Conference of National Wheelchair Basketball Association. Rockets open season at home, hosting Vancouver Powerglides in two-game series Dec. 16 and 18.

Other clubs in circuit are Seattle Flyers and Tacoma Wheelers. Taking part in shooting drill are Paul Robarge and Wally Robson, both of Duncan; Wilf Parsons, Bill Williams, Al Bodner, Roy Crawford and Gordon Korber. Also playing with Rockets is Walter Thompson. (Times Photo.)

GEORGE AGAR

Evans Silences Critics, Collects First Shutout

Vancouver Canucks might have been expected to be under fire today for releasing the Western Hockey League's leading goaltender.

But, thanks to Claude Evans, all's quiet on the Western Front.

Evans is Canucks' new netminder, taking over from George Wood, a rookie who leads the league in the goals-against department but who was given his outright release by Vancouver Tuesday.

Evans, playing his third game for Vancouver, picked

STAMPS RALLY
Calgary Stampers frustrated the attempts of Vancouver to take over first place when they erupted for four third-period goals to defeat Edmonton Flyers 6-5 in the night's only other game.

Canucks remain a point back of Calgary.

Danny Belisle scored the opening goal for Vancouver and insurance markers were added by defencemen Ralph and Dave Duke. All came in the second period. Belisle's goal was his ninth since joining Vancouver eight games ago.

Evans had to earn his shutout, stopping 31 shots in a game originally scheduled for Monday but postponed by a severe blizzard.

At Edmonton, Flyers took a 3-1 lead in the first period and extended it to 5-2 in the second. Stampers applied the pressure in the third and got their tying and winning goals from scrambles around the Flyers' net.

Calgary scorers were Gerry Esch, Lou Jankowski, Wally Hergesheimer, Sid Finney, Ron Leopold and Jim Brown. Flyers' marksmen were Don Poile, Bob Goebel, Gordon Strate, Len Haley and Ed Diachuk.

TIES FOR TOP
Jankowski, who had a goal and an assist, went into a first-place tie in the individual scoring race with Linemate Leopold, whose goal gave him 37 points.

The loss left Edmonton two points behind Vancouver. Edmonton manager Bud Poile has announced that forward Ed Diachuk will join Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League for a tryout. Detroit is sending Brian Smith to the Flyers as a replacement.

Poile also said that forward Roger DeJordy, suffering from a severe stomach disorder, will be lost to the team for at least six weeks.

OUTDOOR REPORT

BY

Doug Peden

There was more than the weather that made it seem almost like a summer day Sunday in waters around Oak Bay. The place was loaded with boats.

In fact, there appeared to be more small craft chugging around than have been seen on any weekend since early last summer. Poor fishing after May was torn off the calendars of discouraged anglers and on many summer Sundays pleasure craft were few and far between.

Salmon fishing, strictly a hit-and-miss proposition since May, started to pick up about a month ago and for the past two weeks has been almost like old times.

It didn't take long for the word to get around and the trailer-boat boys were out in force last weekend. And, for once, the fish didn't put on a weekend vanishing act. Sunday was the most productive day of the year for anglers operating from Oak Bay Boat House and more than 30 salmon were flopped on the floats.

If the fellows in trailer boats were doing as well, there could have been close to 100 salmon taken Sunday from Oak Bay waters.

Several other good catches were reeled in Monday, including three-fish efforts by Ted Parry and John Martin, but Wednesday morning the fish had either moved or just gone on strike. A good bet might be the area around Goat Island and Discovery Light.

Biggest fish of the past week was a spring close to 40 pounds—hauled in by Tiny Richards. There were several between 20 and 28 pounds and the average has been around 14 pounds.

It has been a similar story out Sooke way and off the Breakwater, where commercial trollers have been knocking off some excellent catches and several sports fishermen have filled four-salmon quotas.

The improvement may be an indication of better things in store for next year and suggests that winter springs should soon be moving into Saanich Inlet.

Grise and Jack springs are producing most of the action at the Inlet, although Deep Cove gave up some good springs last week and a few springs are hitting at the Goldstream end. Grise, averaging around a pound, are hitting regularly with early-morning trolling producing the quickest limits. Biggest fish reported during the weekend was a 16-pound spring brought in at Goldstream by Wilf Pember.

Sunday's dry weather didn't help hunters. The riflemen winding up the deer season in the section between Metchosin and Port Renfrew didn't enjoy the success expected. With does and fawns legal targets along with bucks Saturday and Sunday, 511 hunters checked by game branch officials brought back only 19 bucks and 61 antlerless animals.

This added up to 15.6 per cent hunter success, which was the best of the year but still not as good as many had anticipated.

Biggest turkey shoot in the history of the Victoria Fish and Game Protective Association will be staged next weekend at the association's Goldstream grounds.

Three traps will be in operation and shooters will be classed according to ability in order to give all bird-busters an opportunity to crack the prize list. Slated Saturday and Sunday, the events will be open to all shotguns.

Spectators who do not shoot will also have chances to win turkeys. Refreshments will be available in the heated clubhouse.

It should add up to a couple of interesting days out Goldstream way.

Senator Says Boxing Shouldn't Be Included

OTTAWA (CP)—Hope that the government's plans for aiding amateur sport will ignore boxing was expressed Tuesday night by Senator F. W. Gershaw (L. Alberta), medical doctor from Medicine Hat.

The activity should be eliminated altogether, said the 77-year-old senator. He was commenting in the Senate on the brief mention in the Throne Speech of aid for amateur sport in Canada.

Boxing is said to be the main art of self defence, Senator Gershaw said, but at a time when nations were seeking to ban war, surely personal combat could be ruled out at the same time.

Boxing risked "muddling the mind". Serious injuries could result to kidneys, brain, hearing and sight. Most Canadian universities banned or discouraged it.

"Wrestling isn't so dangerous but you still see some pretty revolting things there too," he concluded.

TIME OUT! BY JEFF KEANE

Reach Fourth Round

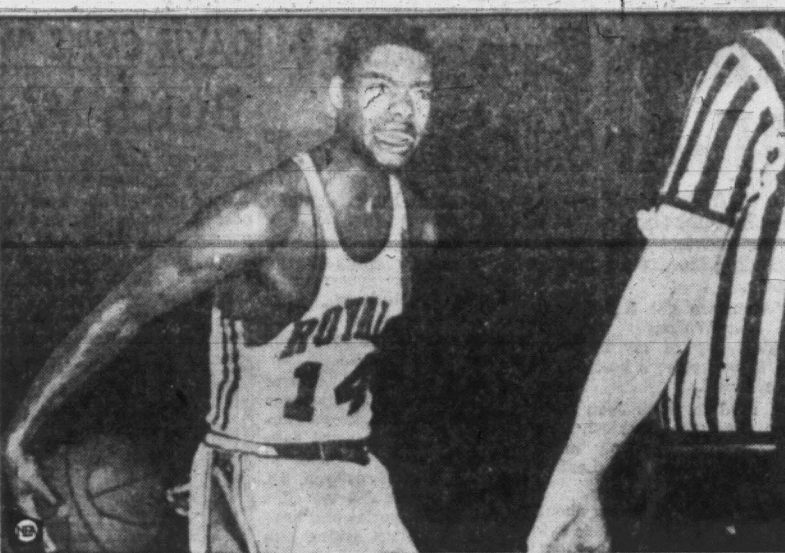

LONDON (Reuters)—Burnley, English Soccer League champions, beat Brentford, a third division team, 2-1, at Burnley Tuesday night in a third-round replay of the Football League Cup competition.

In the fourth round, Burnley will play Nottingham Forest.

Women's Medal Round

Winners of the women's Uplands medal round Tuesday were: "A" division, Mrs. V. Hicks, 87-12-75; "B" division, Mrs. E. H. Livingstone, 100-19-81; "C" division, Mrs. W. Herbert, 113-30-83.

"Good grief, kid, you're only five-foot-four... what makes you think you can play basketball?"

I DON'T WANNA!

Brightest rookie in National Basketball Association this season, Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson registers indignation as he holds ball behind back and refuses to give it to official.

Big O's reluctance to surrender came when 24-second whistle sounded. Royals squeezed out 117-112 victory over New York Tuesday night. Robertson was big gun with 27 points.

Rookies Click in NBA But None Like Big 'O'

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEW YORK (NEA)—Little Maurice Podoloff sat behind the desk in the lofty offices of the National Basketball Association in the Empire State Building, thumbs in vest.

The NBA president was waxing enthusiastic about the Royals, spinning around the fabulous recruit, Oscar Robertson, drawing more than 9,000 paid on election night in Cincinnati.

"You gotta have an attraction," beamed Podoloff. "You gotta have cards to get customers in any sport or form of show business, professional or amateur. You need aces more than you do in poker. Some of the finest performers don't draw. They lack crowd appeal. They still talk of Babe Ruth, don't they? And little Albie Booth at Yale."

REAPING REWARD

Thomas E. Wood and J. Thomas Grace lost more than $100,000 while waiting for Robertson to be graduated from the University of Cincinnati. They are now reaping the rewards for their patience and fortitude. Of the Royals' first five games at Cincinnati Gardens only the televised skirmish on Saturday failed to draw what was a record turnout there. They played before more people in their first four outings in the Rhineland than they did in the entire first half of last season.

Some 50 rookies tried out with the pros for this campaign. Eighteen are still around if Bob Boozer of the Royals, Syracuse's Swede Halbrook, Detroit's Don Ohl and George Lee and St. Louis' Fred Lacour can be included. They saw service in the National Industrial League. Halbrook, who stuck out at Oregon State before moving on to the Wichita Vickers, is now the tallest athlete in the major league at seven-three and the heaviest.

STIRRED SCANDAL

Among the peagreens with the Detroit Pistons is Jackie Moreland. The manner in which North Carolina State recruited this six-foot-eight sharpshooter several years ago stirred up a national scandal and the prized package wound up at Louisiana Tech.

NBA clubs will carry 11 instead of 10 first-year men this trip. This enables coaches to rotate rookies and is by way of preparing talent for Chicago and Pittsburgh outfits which join the money men a year hence.

There are stickouts among this year's pack of beginners, of course, but none quite like Oscar Robertson, who brought his University of Cincinnati co-captain, Ralph Davis, with him.

The six-foot Boozer, who made a name for himself at Kansas State, completes a triumvirate which has given the Royals a tremendous shot in the arm—on the floor and at the bucks office.

Jerry West, of West Virginia, now with Los Angeles, perhaps is the closest thing to Robertson among the rookies. Like Robertson, West is the complete player without a weakness, but the Mountaineer isn't as big and strong as the six-four-and-a-half, 200-pound Big O, and doesn't score as well.

NBA attendance increased 19 per cent last season with the arrival of Wilt the Stilt Chamberlain in Philadelphia trunks. Oscar Robertson has early foot as an equally glittering turnstile magnet.

And as Maurice Podoloff stresses, there is no other way of creating instant people.

Hunt Favored In Open Play

Bob Hunt has been awarded top seed in the men's open singles at the Victoria Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club's championship tournament, which continues tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Tonight's draw: 1-20—Stafford vs. Chapman, Alderger vs. Cox, Hunt vs. Goodman, Massey and Morris vs. Book and Wells, McIlwain vs. McKenzie. 21-30—Humber and Hedley vs. Godfrey and Wells, Dursmith and Barlowen vs. Elbertson and Elbertson, Gowan and Alderger vs. McKenzie and McIlwain, Parry vs. Marshall, Goodman vs. Beulah. 31-40—Brown-Cave and Beulah vs. Bishop and Miller, Donald vs. Moffatt, Harvey and Bessie vs. Morris and Parson, Angus vs. Beulah, Faye Halsey and McKenzie vs. Wason and Lamb-lick. 41-50—Dunbar and Fitch vs. Goodman and Barlowen, Brown-Cave and Massey vs. Cox and Parrish.

Table Toppers Pick President

Newly-elected president of the Victoria Table Tennis Association for the coming season is Nancy Craig.

Other officers are: Doris Asserling, vice-president; Mrs. M. Brett, secretary; Eric Heimburger, treasurer; Charles Clarke, publicity, and George Clark, league.

In the first session of the season, Rick Gough topped the A Division and Gary Restell was the winner in B Division. In the second competition Eric Heimburger had the best record of the As and John Morley won the B Division.

The club plays each Monday night starting at 7:30 at 1318 Broad Street.

Upset-Minded Quartet Faces Favored Gutoski

Bill McLean, who upset the rock-cart once before, gets another chance to continue as a giant-killer when he meets favored Tony Gutoski in tonight's fifth round of the Victoria Curling Club playdowns.

McLean, idle Tuesday with a bye in the third round, last week defeated Steve Hayhurst as nine rinks vie for the honor of carrying the club's banner in provincial playoffs. McLean has won two of his three games in the round-robin affair.

Gutoski made it four straight Tuesday by downing Elmer Hoffman's quartet 11-5. McLean, Hayhurst and Gordon Moore follow in the standings by showing only one loss after Tuesday's games.

More needed the benefit of a measure to edge Eric Bullock, 7-6, in a thriller; Hayhurst got by club president Gerry Walls, 11-9, and Larry Marshall downed Sam Rycroft. Tonight's games, which start at 9, pair McLean and Gutoski, Marshall and Moore, Hayhurst and Hoffman, and Bullock and Walls.

College Cagers In Busy Term

By LES MILLIN

Now that the athletes around Victoria College have traded their sports implements for textbooks, at least until the Christmas exams are over, let's step back and take a long look at how college sport has fared so far this year.

Big thing around campus is, of course, the Viking basketball team, whose schedule calls for at least 10 games in the next term. This term, they won three out of six matches, their latest defeat at the hands of a powerful Everett Junior College team.

Only the excellent defensive work of the Vikings kept the Everett score as low as it was in the last game, and the locals will have to face up to the fact that they rank well below average height for basketball teams, and they must try to work out some strategy to compensate for that.

An improvement in the Viking offense might be the solution.

Rugby, a sport which opened strongly and then declined because of the high injury rate among players, will open the new term's play with all invalids recovered and back on the field, all with a determination to make a good showing. The Viking "A" squad placed fifth in their league in pre-Christmas play, but both "A" and "B" XVs will be in better shape now than both have a full complement of players. So enthusiastic are the rugby men that they have organized on an entirely unofficial basis—additional practices over the holidays. Those who remember how well the Viking XV were doing before they got felled by lack of uninjured personnel will be well advised to keep a sharp eye on the rugby team after Christmas.

Looking at grass hockey, there's a team with a fine record. Only two defeats were marked up against them, and one of them was at the hands of the boys' rugby team, so it can be considered excusable. The heartbreaker was the final in the Bridgman Cup series, where the girls lost a minor sports wind up with the ice hockey team doing well after a few trials and tribulations at the start. The skaters have won three, tied two, and lost two, and with the guidance of coach John Oster should show well next term.

Their finances will be in better shape, too, now that the Athletic Council has found some funds for the hockey boys to use. Rowing shells will be on the water next term, once the crew is considered to be in good enough shape physically to keep them going at a smart clip. The oarsmen are still on the lookout for rowing machines, by the way.

Tom Wyatt, president of the Athletic Council, had this to say about campus sports so far this year: "Athletics are doing very well generally. I hope that they will improve even more after Christmas, and one way to help them is for more and bigger crowds to turn out to the games. Our teams have lots of spirit, and should be given great support. "But I'm very pleased with what we have accomplished so far."

Oxford Loses To Cambridge

TWICKENHAM, England (Reuters)—Favored Cambridge rolled over Oxford, 13-0, in rugby here Tuesday before 50,000 in the 79th renewal of the match.

Pete Dawkins, former all-America football player for West Point, broke away for runs of 75 and 30 yards in the closing minutes of play for Oxford. All scoring came in the first half of the game, which provided the biggest winning margin in this traditional encounter since Oxford won by an identical score 9 years ago.

"Let's not leave it 'til Christmas Eve"

The timely delivery of greetings is important. So, right here and now, "Blackie" and "Whitey" wish you all the Joy and Happiness at Christmas and Success in the New-Year.

Kelly Greatest All-Around Star

TORONTO (CP)—Manager-coach Punch Imlach says he thinks centre Red Kelly of Toronto Maple Leafs is the greatest all-purpose player in hockey—and he's including Montreal's Jean Beliveau and Detroit's Gordie Howe.

"When we got Kelly from the Red Wings, it was the luckiest day of my life and has to be hockey's best deal," Imlach said.

"I used to think Jean Beliveau was the greatest, but Kelly has changed my mind since he joined the Leafs," Imlach said.

"They'll scream, 'What about Gord Howe?' Well, I have evidence to back my opinion that Kelly is the most valuable player in this league... he has played centre, defence and left wing like an all-star. Howe is a great forward but he can't play polished defence."

Leafs got Kelly from Detroit in a trade half-way through last season after Kelly refused to report to New York Rangers in a Detroit-New York deal.

Meanwhile, league president Clarence Campbell says he has not yet reached a decision about remarks on refereeing made by Imlach.

Imlach accused referee Frank Udvari and linesmen George Hayes and Loren Doolittle of blowing several calls in last Thursday's game at Montreal, Canadiens won, 6-3. "I have assembled the clips of newspaper stories and have written to Imlach asking him to accept the declarations that were made or reject them," Campbell said in Montreal.

"When I receive his reply I will make a decision. "I don't expect coaches to clam up. They have a right to criticize the work of officials. But when they accuse officials of general incompetence—which just isn't so—or question their integrity, then it's a horse from a different stable."

DAVIS CUP'S 'WAR OF NERVES'

Butch Wants to Bop Somebody

PERTH (AP)—Flery Earl (Butch) Buchholz declared war on photographers and imposed a personal ban on newspapers today in a new out-break of "war of nerves" in the tense Davis Cup tennis campaign.

"I am mad, I am really mad," the 20-year-old St. Louis ace fumed after seeing a picture in a newspaper which showed him tossing a racket during practice Tuesday.

"I was down on one of the side courts all by myself practicing my service. I was not bothering anyone and this guy sneaks up and takes a picture like this."

"I consider it an invasion of my privacy. It is an attempt to make a big fuss for nothing. I will smash the camera of the next guy who tries to take my picture while I am playing."

Australian papers have been sharply critical of the Americans' court deportment since they arrived last month.

Premier of Samoa Seeks Independence

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Prime Minister Mataafa Flame of Western Samoa, wearing a skirt and sandals, arrived here late Monday night by plane en route to the United Nations where he will argue his country's case for independence. Western Samoa seeks nationhood after a UN trusteeship administered by New Zealand. "New Zealand has been preparing us for independence," he said.

There are plenty of candidates but few issues in Victoria's election campaign. More than 20,000 eligible voters can choose from 11 candidates to fill four aldermanic seats on the 1961 council.

Ballots will be cast at Victoria Ballroom, on the north-west corner of Government and Cormorant, Thursday, but all indications point to a light turnout.

That means that upsets could be swung by relatively few votes.

In the running for the seats are:

Ald. Arthur Dowell, company president and senior alderman with 10 years' experience, campaigning for re-election on his record;

Ald. A. I. Curtis, railway agent and a long-time member of school board before election to council in 1955, also seeking re-election on his record;

Michael John Griffin, plumbing firm director, stresses business principles should be applied to civic administration and advocates tax relief for improvements to property and civic leadership in reducing the number of charitable appeals;

William C. Hudson, retired, is a well-known Gyro Club member and former businessman, who emphasizes need for attracting and retaining industry, a new City Hall and a one way traffic system;

Samuel Lane, hotel proprietor, urges more vigorous civic policies to promote the tourist trade and attraction of light industry;

Elgin Neish, commercial fisherman, advocates reduction of water rates, removal of school taxes on land and provision of off-street parking through local improvement taxes;

Charles M. Nelles, apartment house operator, pledges a "hold the line" policy on taxes, efforts to obtain grants in lieu of taxes from the province and more financial sharing by outside municipalities of various civic amenities provided the area by the city;

Cecil M. Parrott, retired assistant building inspector and former school trustee, offers his full-time services and advocates an attack on the school financing problem;

Sarah Jane Rogers, housewife, proposes tax incentives for property improvement, multiple polling stations and a better business bureau;

Alfred W. Toone, labor organization official, advocates night council meetings, a multi-purpose auditorium, an industrial development commission and more vocational education facilities;

Victor W. Williams, real estate salesman, advocates more homeowner representation on the council, efforts toward a more equitable school financing system based on income tax, establishment of comfort stations downtown and free bus passes for senior citizens on a rotating basis.

Students Razz, Cheer New Party Director

Times College Correspondent
Desmond Sparham, national director of New Party clubs, found his reception at Victoria College Tuesday rather overwhelming.

After being severely heckled by students in the balcony of the college auditorium, he refused to address persons sitting there or answer their questions, inviting those who wished to confine their remarks to what he termed "intelligent interruptions" to sit on the ground floor of the hall.

His invitation was unanimously rejected by the hecklers in the balcony, but when they realized that they could not get their questions answered as long as they sat up on top, a number descended to the floor level.

Mr. Sparham said that university undergraduates had political responsibilities, and went on to outline the need for a new party in Canada, one in which they would be able to play a certain part. He stressed that the New Party would be representative of the "true liberals" in Canada, but did not elaborate.

He said at the beginning of his address that he would not discuss details of the organization of the New Party, but would speak to any students interested after his speech.

Despite his refusal to speak to students in the balcony, Mr. Sparham was frequently heckled and occasionally applauded from that section of the auditorium. He also had to put up with being bombarded with paper darts when strong exception was taken to some of his remarks.

Mr. Sparham appeared somewhat nonplussed throughout.

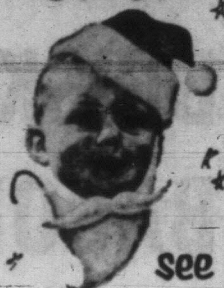

More Winter Jobs

VANCOUVER (CP) — The Unemployment Insurance Commission reports that more men will be employed in winter works programs in British Columbia this year than last.

plauded from that section of the auditorium. He also had to put up with being bombarded with paper darts when strong exception was taken to some of his remarks.

Mr. Sparham appeared somewhat nonplussed throughout.

MONTE ROBERTS

Despite the fact it never rains in Victoria, I would like to make out a case for the male umbrella.

The male umbrella has fallen into sad disuse during the past couple of generations.

Such a sensible item of male apparel as an umbrella should never have been allowed to disappear from the scene.

There are many parts of the world in which it rains, and when it rains, do you see males carrying umbrellas over their heads, and thus walking in bone-dry comfort through the precipitation?

Only in the more civilized parts of the world will you see this, and hardly ever on the North American continent. Apparently, on the North American continent, it is not considered manly for a male to protect himself with an umbrella.

You may think I am wasting your time with my case for the male umbrella, because it never rains in Victoria.

However, Mr. William Mackie up at Gonzales Heights, who is in charge of sending full clouds over to Vancouver, sometimes is faced with the inefficiency of his confreres on the mainland.

And the empty clouds which are shuttled back here for refilling are not completely empty.

Thus our constant sunshine, playing on the not-quite-empty clouds, causes a sort of downward evaporation, creating a moist situation not unlike taking a shower with your clothes on.

Due to this lack of efficiency on the part of the Vancouver cloud-emptiers, the male umbrella should be returned to the place of honor it deserves in this city.

One can never tell when a non-empty cloud is apt to be exposed to our sunshine and evaporate downwards.

Then what more logical than for a male to carry an umbrella, furred and at the ready to provide a mobile roof whenever needed?

For males who drive automobiles, a male umbrella—short handled and easy to stow in the smallest automobile—would be ideal for the 18-block walk from the parking space to the destination, after the eight-block drive from home to the parking place.

If such a car-sized umbrella were in production, I would be the first to avail myself of its advantages.

As far as it being considered unmanly for a male to carry an umbrella, this is simply a matter of design and a challenge to the umbrella impresarios.

I will gladly extend a few suggestions: an umbrella handle shillelagh style for those whose mither's mither came from Ireland; a bottle-grip for Old Vic's Uncle Zeke; a clear plastic canopy for young men who like to look ahead; an eye-level mounting of pin-up pictures for the young at heart; and a little, short-handled, broad-brimmed, car-stowable brolly for such as me.

I promise not to lose it.

(Now where DID I leave my rubbers?)

Lawyer Appointed Deputy Coroner

A city lawyer has been appointed Victoria deputy coroner by the provincial attorney-general's department.

Harold E. Alder is also deputy judge of the family court here.

He will assist coroner Dr. J. H. Moore, appointed after the death in October of Dr. E. C. Hart.

CITY MAN FIT FOR TRIAL ON AXE CHARGE

A Victoria man has been found fit to face trial for attempted murder after two months in the provincial mental home at Essondale.

Released as no longer mentally ill is Joseph Altorjal, 1908 Douglas, charged Sept. 30 with attempted murder after a man was struck on the arm with an axe in a city cafe.

A cabinet order transfers Altorjal back to Victoria city jail to face "due process of law."

The charge followed a complaint by James Cameron, 824 Broughton, that he was the axe-wielder's victim in the Melrose Cafe, on Yates St.

20-Cent Hike Proposed For Shipyards

A three-year contract with wage increases totalling up to 20 cents an hour is under consideration by the West Coast's three major shipyards and three separate union groups representing shipyard workers.

The contract was recommended by conciliation officer Reg Clements.

One union group in Vancouver, the Marine Workers and Boilermakers Industrial Union, objected to terms in the contract dealing with minimum pay for Saturday and Sunday work.

Two city yards

The shipyards, which negotiate with labor as a unit through the B.C. Ship Builders and Ship Repairers Association, are: Victoria Machinery Depot Ltd., and Yarrows Ltd., Victoria, and Burrard Drydock Ltd., North Vancouver.

J. W. Hudson, president of the association and executive vice-president of Burrard, said today the association would state its stand on the recommendation by the end of this week. He said most of the workers affected were on the mainland.

Conciliation officer Clements suggested a wage increase next April of six cents an hour for those making $2.25 an hour or more, and four cents an hour for those making under $2.25.

He recommended seven cents and four cents next October in the same proportion, and a further seven cents and four cents in October of 1962.

$2.50 AN HOUR

Journeymen mechanics base rate for all the unions is $2.50 an hour. This is the first year the shipyard unions have bargained separately, instead of as an entity.

The shipyards' position prior to appointment of the conciliation officer by the provincial department of labor, was to "hold the line" and to grant no increases at all at this time.

The Saturday-Sunday pay issue rejected by the Vancouver boilermakers, does not apply at either Victoria yard.

Three ticket centres have been established for the annual concert by the senior choir of First United Church to be held Wednesday, Dec. 14, at 8.15 p.m., at the church.

They are at Western Music, Fort Street; Toojays, View Street, and at the church itself.

Tickets will not be obtainable at the door as previously reported.

Reginald Sinkinson, vice-chairman of School Board 63, today denied he stated at Royal Oak public meeting Monday that a $784,000 school bylaw defeated in rural Saanich last month would be put to the ratepayers again next year.

The trustee said he stated: "We will be forced to put a bylaw to the people next year."

David Russell, 22, of 1411 Mitchell, was sentenced in city police court today to four months in jail for taking a car without the owner's consent.

Magistrate William Ostler said a previous record made probation impossible.

Mrs. H. A. C. Scarth will open St. Saviour's annual winter fair in the parish hall, tonight at 7 o'clock. There will be a selection of needlework, home cooking, candy, books and jewelry, as well as a parcel post stall. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Land-Grab in U.S. Worries Lumbermen

Forest Parley Opens in City

Increased conflict over forest land use, need for substantial local markets for forest products and the threat of federal interference in U.S. forest operations were brought to the attention of the 500 delegates to the 51st annual conference of the Western Forestry and Conservation Association by opening session speakers this morning at the Empress Hotel.

Association president Hugh J. Hodgins of Vancouver issued a call for "reasonable and co-operative thinking and planning."

He said that policies "must recognize the urgency of adopting and following a fully-integrated multiple use plan whereby recreational, industrial and other uses are combined harmoniously."

Mr. Hodgins, vice-president, timber, for Crown Zellerbach Canada Ltd., declared: "There is no room for dedicated thinking in this area... it is extremely important that we eliminate the ivory tower attitude in land use management."

LAND GRAB
The association's forest counsel, Hardin R. Glascock of Portland, stressed the sharpening nature of the land use conflict in the U.S. when he told the delegates:

"A gigantic, 10-year crash program has been launched to grab land in the U.S.—including commercial forest land—for exclusive and limited recreational use. The frantic slogan: 'What we get in the next 10 years will be all that we get,' is spurring on these efforts."

Mr. Glascock also warned that a federal program of aid and interference is underway in the U.S. forest industry.

"Such a program for forestry is already blueprinted to the tune of half a billion dollars annually, according to the statements of a retired U.S. government official before the recent meeting of the Association of Consulting Foresters

PAST GLORY
Stumpage prices for such historically favored species as Douglas fir persisted at peak levels more as a tribute to past glory than for present-day product value relationships, he said.

"Our promotional staffs must either develop markets willing and able to pay for special and superior qualities inherent in certain species or we must expect reductions in stumpage values to the general level," Mr. Wagner declared.

GLEN HAMILTON ... after Pearkes' seat

New Party Candidate Welfare Man

A social worker is expected to be the New Party candidate for the federal Esquimalt-Saanich riding, it was learned today.

Glen Hamilton, 40, director of the Silver Threads Agency, is the only nominee to date, R. Desmond Sparham, national New Party Club organizer said here today. Nominations close at midnight tonight.

Mr. Sparham said as he left Victoria after organizing a New Party Club in Esquimalt-Saanich, that Mr. Hamilton's name was proposed at a meeting of CCF, Labor and New Party Club representatives Tuesday.

"I'm sure he will win the seat for the New Party, as it won in Peterborough," said Mr. Sparham. "He is the type of man who will appeal to all those who are of the left of centre of democratic opinion in Canada."

Born at Roblin, Man., Mr. Hamilton came to B.C. in 1920. He attended Victoria College and got a master's degree in social work at University of B.C.

Reeveship Contest to Highlight Central Saanich Election Scene

A contest for the reeveship, following resignation of Reeve H. Rupert Brown, is the chief point of interest in the Central Saanich election Thursday.

Candidates are as follows:

FOR REEVE

Ray M. Lamont, of 2946 Lamont, employee in the freight department of Trans-Canada Air Lines. A former poultryman, he has been a member of every council since the municipality was formed in 1950, and resigned his seat to run for the reeveship.

R. Gordon Lee, 931 Clark, is retired. Coming here from the Yukon and a councillor since 1958, he will stress careful control and administration of finances. Mr. Lee was a councillor in the Yukon for nine years.

FOR TWO-YEAR COUNCIL TERM

Mrs. Gladys Ronson, 7129 Hagan, is a member of the council and seeks re-election. Resident of Brentwood since 1941, she represented Central Saanich on South Vancouver Island Union Board of Health and library board.

A. K. (Bert) Hemstreet, 7709 East Saanich, a justice of the peace and former police commissioner, has been a resident of the district for 13 years. He had 20 years as a community club president in the north, and six years experience as a school board chairman.

Thomas B. Michell, 6941

Telegraph Road, is a member of a well-known family in the Keating area. A farmer, fruit grower and member of the volunteer fire department, he also is former works superintendent of the municipality.

Albert Vickers, 897 Sluggert, proprietor of a Brentwood barber shop, came to the district nine years ago from the prairies, and for the past seven years has been a trustee of Brentwood Waterworks District. He also is a member of Brentwood Community Club and Central Saanich Chamber of Commerce, and is chairman of Brentwood United Church finance committee.

FOR ONE-YEAR TERM

Frank Grimshaw, 2185 Mount Newton Cross Road, is a former policeman and now a security guard. A member of the council now completing a two-year term, he seeks re-election to the one-year seat.

Kelly Troup, 982 Marchants, and one of the younger candidates, is a school bus driver and 20-year resident of the area. Member of Brentwood Community Club and a volunteer fireman, he is a former municipal employee.

John E. Southern, 7081 Beach, a salesman, is a native Victorian who lived in Vancouver for two years prior to making his home in Central Saanich. His candidacy marks his first bid for public office.

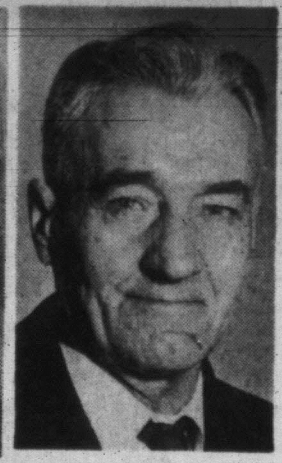

(Pictures of Mr. Vickers and Mr. Southern were not available for use with those of other candidates.)

TOPICS OF THE DAY

An oil painting by Victoria artist Emily Carr entitled "Near Alberni" fetched $210 at Lunds Auction rooms, 928 Fort Street, Tuesday night.

Another Emily Carr painting, "The Water Fall," was sold for $75.

A painting by Thomas Sidney Cooper, R.A., "Cattle and Sheep," was bid to $290 and a work by Tom Roberts, one of the Group of Seven, called "Late Winter in the Hills," was sold for $135.

Pak W. Chan, 1447 Haultain, proprietor of Haultain Grocery, was fined $10 in city police court Tuesday on a charge of selling fireworks after 6 p.m. on Oct. 29.

A charge of selling fireworks to a person under 16 was dismissed.

J. A. Driscoll, 1452 Stroud, was given a suspended sentence under bond of $250 for one year, when he appeared in Saanich police court Tuesday charged with committing an indecent act. He admitted the offence.

R. H. Roy of Victoria College's history department will meet former members of the B.C. Dragons at 8 p.m. Friday at the Britannia Branch of the Canadian Legion.

Mr. Roy will discuss with the ex-tank regiment men the book he has been commissioned to write on the regiment's history.

Mayor Percy Scurrah said Tuesday that police commission and fire wardens committee agree the city needs a proper ambulance for emergencies.

But he said it cannot be purchased until city council passes its 1961 budget in the spring.

Police commissioner William Hamilton recently complained that he was "fed up" with inaction in equipping the departments with an ambulance.

The provincial government is spending an extra $27,000 this year on guards in "Doukhobor country."

The cabinet has approved the supplementary expenditure from the consolidated revenue fund because the $75,000 allowed in the budget for Doukhobor affairs proved insufficient to meet wages for the guards in the Kootenays.

Pouring syrup in a truck's gasoline tank is no joke, truck driver Arthur Laplante, 904 Caledonia, learned when he was fined $100 in city police court today.

Charged with wilful damage to property of Douglas Ferny, another trucker, Laplante pleaded guilty to a part in the act, in which another man also is charged.

Asked why the deed was done, Laplante told Con. Peter Voth, "To have a laugh on Ferny."

ASK THE TIMES

Q. Which is the correct spelling, Magna Charta or Magna Carta? F.P.

A. For years it was spelled Magna Charta, but in 1946 the British government officially adopted the Latin spelling, carta.

Q. Would you please tell me what the red brick building with barred windows is at the corner of Dallas and Simcoe? R.M.S.

A. This is the old federal immigration building.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times, addressed to "Ask the Times" Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily.

All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest. The Times does not undertake to solve conundrums or legal problems. Nor will it attempt to put a value on old coins, stamps or antiques. These should be submitted to dealers.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Little Girls Will Adore Fully Decorated Cradles

By PENNY SAVER

Every little "mother" will jump with delight when she discovers a rocker cradle for her favorite doll under the Christmas tree—especially if it's one of those I've seen this morning. These are all "dressed" by the owner of the store and they're absolutely beautiful!

All are fully lined in satin with their own felt mattresses and pillow. Cradles have billowing skirts and covers in a variety of materials that include floral cottons, pure silks, colonial prints and organdy. Wood and wicker bases are made in the Canadian National Institute for the Blind's workshop. Cradles measuring 18 inches sell for $6.95, while large 23-inch cradles are priced at $9.95.

Many women's clubs and organizations are having meetings that take the form of a Christmas party this month. If you are going to one soon and are asked to bring along a small gift you can't do better than choose one of the attractive corsages that are the work of an industrious old age pensioner. All are selling at 50 cents and there are corsages of ribbon roses, foam rubber flowers and a varied selection of festive corsages of decorated pine cones, poinsettias and snowmen.

If you're looking for an unusual gift for a neighbor or friend I'd suggest you take a peek at the gift boxes of scented candles that sell at $1.25.

Candles will burn for as long as 12 hours and give off a delightful fragrance that dispels stale cigarette smells and other odors in the nicest way possible. Sets contain four candles and a glass container. Fragrances you can choose from include honeysuckle, lily of the valley, lime blossom, myrtlewood, orange blossom, gardenia, Christmas rose and redwood.

For use in your home there are individual candles that sell at 25 cents each. These come in either rose or gardenia scents.

If you would like to know where Penny shopped today give her a ring at EV 2-3131.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Is Sleep a Waste of Time? No—It Gives Brain a Rest

Sleep is really a wonderful process. It is surprising when we stop to think of it that once every 24 hours we go through rituals and put on special garments before we lie down to become unconscious for a few hours. We even have equipment like beds to help us become unconscious. Funny when you think about it isn't it?

People sometimes say that it is a shame that we have to waste so much time sleeping. If you feel this way, you are kidding yourself. Actually, folks are only conscious in a very small way when they are awake. It has been estimated that we spend only one minute out of every hour doing things which demand anything even approaching complete attention. Think how smart we would be if we could increase that to two minutes. Five or less would probably make geniuses out of us!

There is no doubt that the more minutes we are aware, and the more keenly aware we are, the more successful we will be. However, it seems wise to improve the quality of our awareness rather than decrease the amount of sleep we get.

Sleep is the rest period of the body. Our heart and respiration slow down and most of the tension leaves our muscles. However, sleep is most important because it gives the brain some measure of rest. Of course, the brain never rests completely. It still has vital matters to attend to and it even indulges in dreams.

A very interesting experiment was carried on during World War II at Camp Elliott in California. The idea was to find out how long a person can go without sleep and what effects prolonged loss of sleep has. The tests showed that lack of sleep was much harder on the brain than on the body. Soldiers volunteered for this experiment. Several hundred of them stayed awake for four days without even a little nap. One set a record for a little more than eight days.

Medical examinations throughout the study revealed that the body showed little or no reaction to loss of sleep, but that the brain was importantly affected. It reacted with loss of memory, extreme irritation, illusions, hallucinations and all sorts of mental aberrations.

So, sufficient sleep is important for physical health, but even more so for mental health and efficiency.

DEAR ABBY

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"what happened" when a baby is in casts up to both hips. Your best answer is this: "When he was born, his little legs were not quite normal—but he'll be fine soon."

CONFIDENTIAL TO HERB: If that is "togetherness"—try "apartness."

DEAR ABBY: I was very angry when I found a letter on my daughter's desk addressed to "Dear Abby." I was hurt to think that my daughter would write to you about her problem instead of coming to me. So I did an inexcusable thing. I steamed open the envelope, and after reading the letter, I wanted to die of shame. I guess parents just have to trust their children. When you read her letter you'll know why. Here it is:

A PROUD MOTHER.

DEAR ABBY: All my friends say I have a strict, old-fashioned mother, but I think she is wonderful. She doesn't let me do all the things my friends do, but I know she is holding me back for my own good. Sometimes I scream and carry on, but it doesn't do me any good. I love both my parents very much and wouldn't trade them for the world.

A LUCKY TEEN-AGER.

DEAR ABBY: I disagree with your remarks about shooting wild birds and game. They are not "defenseless." Nature provided them with camouflage-coloring which changes with the seasons in order that they may hide. Birds can fly and deer can run as swift as any arrow. Hunting is a sport and there is nothing "cruel" about it.

LOVES TO HUNT.

DEAR ABBY: What you say may be true, but have you ever seen a duck that could shoot back?

DEAR ABBY: Fifteen months ago we had a little boy who was born with club feet. We have him in casts up to his hips. Everyone who sees him wants to know what's wrong with his legs.

We have our house up for sale now and when people come into the house, instead of looking at the house they run right over to the baby and say, "Oh, what's wrong with his legs?"

I'd like to tell them it's none of their business, but I haven't the nerve. They all have the same story that someone in their family or someone they knew had the same trouble. Please tell me what to say. I don't want to be rude, but I can't take it any more.

VERY-VERY WEARY.

DEAR WEARY: Your visitors don't mean to be rude, so you shouldn't become upset. It's perfectly natural to ask Popular custom in parliamentary circles in Ottawa of entertaining at the coffee hour was inaugurated at Government House Tuesday morning when Mrs. George R. Pearkes, right, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, entertained more than 50 feminine guests at a coffee party.

For Animal Welfare Work

Cats' Protection League tea and bazaar, held last Saturday in Canadian Legion Hall, raised $500 to carry on animal welfare work of the league. Rev. Emma M. Smiley opened the event and Mrs. J. Hunter and Mrs. M. Munro were the conveners.

Mrs. I. D. Woods was in charge of kitchen arrangements assisted by Mrs. A. Carnochan, Mrs. B. Perkins, Mrs. F. Baynton and Mr. H. Maurice. Serving tea were Mrs. A. Hockley, Mrs. T. Unicum, Mrs. G. Farmer, Mrs. L. Hunter and Miss W. Ross. Convening the successful stalls were Mrs. F. Kriegel, Miss M. Booth and Miss E. Booth, home cooking; Mrs. O. Dugdale, Mrs. E. Sproston, Miss V. Lawrenson, Miss E. Higgs and Miss J. Heritage, superfluties; aprons, Mrs. F. Murray, Miss A. Miller, and Miss E. Prangnell, aprons; Mrs. E. Sweeney and Mrs. E. Griswold, books and plants; Mrs. H. M. Kerswell; calendars and literature; Mrs. I. Jackson and Miss O. Bossi, membership; Miss G. Owen, raffle, and Mrs. W. Wilds and Miss W. Hughes, door.

Tree Sets Fair Theme

A decorated Christmas tree with many sized parcels piled underneath was focal point for a parcel post stall at a country fair arranged by Victoria Chapter No. 25, Women of the Moose, in the Moose Home, Mrs. M. Kirkwood, dressed to represent Christmas, convened

Among guests at the Government House coffee party were, from the left, Mrs. E. W. Arnold, Mrs. David Cross, Mrs. C. M. Nelles, Mrs. R. H. Tye and Miss Kathleen Agnew. Attractive arrangements of spiced chrysanthemums decorated the drawing room where Mrs. Pearkes received her guests. Others who presided at the coffee table were Miss Agnew, Mrs. J. Sutherland-Brown and Mrs. H. E. Sexton.

Ball Planned for Inaugural Celebrations in Washington

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Inaugural ball officials confer today with the Kennedy family on plans for the "brilliant beautiful" affair.

Mrs. Hale Boggs and Stanley Woodward, co-chairmen of the inaugural ball committee, will meet with president-elect John F. Kennedy's brother-in-law, Stephen Smith, to make sure arrangements so far are "on the right track."

Mrs. Boggs, wife of a Louisiana congressman, said only one "brilliant beautiful" dance was being planned to accommodate the crowds who will descend on the nation's capital for the inauguration Jan. 20.

Four celebrations were held for President Eisenhower's second inauguration in 1957. But Mrs. Boggs said the consensus of all who worked on the last inauguration was that one big inaugural ball was better than several affairs scattered around town at different hotels.

Mrs. Boggs said the National Guard Armory, scene of the 1961 inaugural ball, has a huge centre box which can accommodate "lots of family." It will be set aside for the Kennedy clan.

Other special boxes will be set aside for vice-president-elect Lyndon B. Johnson and his wife and two daughters and for other members of the new administration.

Jacqueline Kennedy, recovering from the caesarean birth of her second child, has a hand in sketches for her inaugural gown. But the design, color and style are being kept secret.

The inaugural ball will be formal. White tie and tails for the men would be "lovely," said Mrs. Boggs. But she added that black tie would be "perfectly acceptable." For women, short or long evening gowns are in order. Tickets will be priced at $25 per person. A box seat will sell for $40 per person. Music will be provided by Society band leader Meyer Davis who has conducted at inaugural balls for Presidents Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower. His band also played at Jacqueline Kennedy's debut and wedding.

Daughter of Ganges Couple Wed

Crossfield Baptist Church in Crossfield, Alta., was scene of recent wedding which united Miss Iris Mae Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Douglas of Ganges, with Leonard Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Turner of Carstairs, Alta. Rev. G. Richardson officiated at the double ring, candlelight ceremony.

Bride chose a full-length gown of white silk, Chantilly lace and taffeta featuring a lace bodice styled with sweetheart neckline and lily-point sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil filmed from a sparkling pearl and crystal tiara and her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of groom. Red roses were arranged with stephanotis in her bouquet.

Miss Patricia Douglas, sister of bride, was maid of honor and Miss Verda Turner, the bridesmaid. The former wore a gown of pink organza and carried a bouquet of coco-toned carnations. Miss Turner's gown was in peacock blue organza and her flowers were red carnations. Both wore sequin tiaras.

Little Valencia Douglas, as flower girl, was in a frilly nylon dress of organza. She carried a basket of pink and white sweetheart rosebuds. Groom was attended by his brothers, Louis Turner and David Turner. Tom Morgan and Wayne Dunsmaur acted as ushers.

During signing of register, Mrs. Eva Borgstrom sang "The Wedding Prayer" with Miss Eileen Smith as accompanist.

Reception followed in the church hall with Rev. Richardson proposing the bridal toast.

Following a honeymoon in Banff, Mr. and Mrs. Turner will live in Calgary.

Proof that articles written by Victoria Daily Times staffers reach far-off places is contained in a letter received this morning by Pat Dufour of the women's department. An article written in October by Mrs. Dufour on the Women's Institute work of two English visitors, Miss M. Collier and Miss J. D. Thornberry, was sent by a Victoria woman to her mother in Hertfordshire, Eng. Soon after the Misses Collier and Thornberry returned to their home in Lindfield, Sussex, they received the clipping from Hertfordshire, with a letter, requesting that it be returned when they had read it so that the first recipient might send it on to another daughter in Australia. Both Miss Thornberry and Miss Collier have pleasant memories of their stay in Victoria with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Thornberry on Dewdney Avenue.

Cherries, Candied Fruit Bejewel Christmas Pudding

As red as bright holly berries, maraschino cherries add their holiday color to Christmas desserts. Combined with candied fruits, they give an old-fashioned New England steamed pudding a gala appearance.

Cherry Steamed Pudding With Hard Sauce

Two and one quarter cups sifted all-purpose flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2½ teaspoons baking powder, ¼ cup butter or margarine, softened; ¼ cup firmly-packed brown sugar, 4 eggs, separated; ¼ cup milk, ½ cup chopped maraschino cherries (about 15 cherries), ½ cup mixed candied fruits, ½ cup chopped walnuts, 2 teaspoons vanilla.

Sift together flour, salt and baking powder. Beat butter or margarine and sugar until light and fluffy. Add flour mixture and egg yolks alternately to butter or margarine mixture, beating well after each addition. Blend in milk. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Fold egg whites, cherries, candied fruits, walnuts and vanilla into creamed mixture. Turn into greased 2-quart bell-shaped mold or 2-quart mold. Cover and steam for 2 hours. Unmold and serve garnished with hard sauce. Garnish with additional cherries, as desired.

Hard Sauce: Cream together ½ cup butter and 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar. Add 1 tablespoon undiluted evaporated milk, ¼ teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Beat until light and fluffy. Chill until firm.

Parish Guild Makes $800

Christmas tea and sale sponsored by the Women's Parish Guild of Christ Church Cathedral, last Saturday in Memorial Hall, realized a sum of $800.

Guests were welcomed by guild president, Mrs. J. F. K. English and Mrs. Brian Whitlow. The boys' choir, directed by organist Richard Proudman, sang carols.

Afternoon tea was served. Assistants in tea room, kitchen and at stalls were: Mrs. D. Mitchell, Mrs. S. White, Mrs. J. Buckle, Mrs. E. Greenhill, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. M. Wigley, Mrs. P. Player, Mrs. G. Gilbert, Mrs. Raine, Mrs. B. Baird, Mrs. E. Martin, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. A. Greenwood, Miss I. Cole, Miss C. Cowley and Miss G. Hardy.

Stall conveners were Miss B. Morley, Mrs. C. Barker, Mrs. Whitlow, Mrs. T. Evans, Miss K. Jaffray, Mrs. E. Stocker, Mrs. W. Stubbs, Mrs. C. Riach, Mrs. J. Wells, Miss Izard, and members of the Girls' Auxiliary: Miss Beryl Harrison for Fellowship of St. Francis and Miss Sandy Duff for the AYP.

Tickets were sold by Mrs. W. E. Winkel and hand paintings by Mrs. P. Robinson.

'Bread and Butter' Courses Boom

By JOHN MIKA

Greater Victoria night school—which has been handling droves of adults interested in recreational and craft subjects—is booming in a new direction this year.

Academic subjects are proving as magnetic as practical courses with result that high school matriculation subjects have drawn 376 registrations—compared with 72 persons who wrote the examinations last year.

Reason for the tremendous increase is a growing awareness by persons who left high school early that a matriculation certificate can make a big difference in the kind of job they can get and sometimes in whether they can get a job at all.

Result is that Shakespeare and algebra have become "bread and butter" subjects at night school while carpentry classes attract the hobbyist.

'Can't Get Jobs'

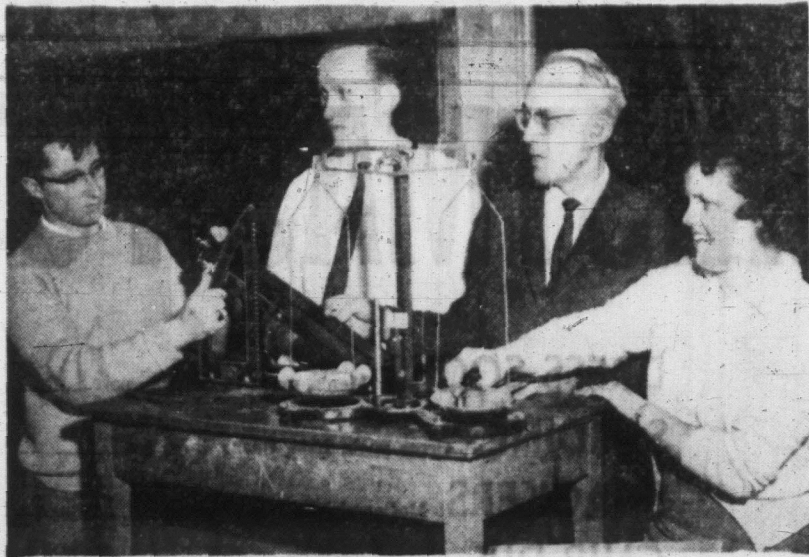

"For years we have been putting on one or two matriculation subjects and have found only a lukewarm response," says Allan Batey, principal of Greater Victoria School Board's night division.

"This year we decided to broaden the program because more and more people are finding they can't get jobs without matriculation."

"Now, most of the classes have overflowed so that we have to put them into two groups—and we practically have to use a shoe-horn to squeeze them into the physics laboratory."

Here's Breakdown

Here's how the enrollment breaks down: 22 students in English 10 and 20; 12 in English 30; 60 in English Literature 40 and 64 in English Language 40; 35 in French 10 and 20; 27

SECOND CHANCE at obtaining a matriculation certificate has drawn an overflow enrolment to night classes in Victoria High School. "Seat warming" is unknown as they work hard to make up for lost time

In Mathematics 10 and 20; 40 in Mathematics 30; 51 in Mathematics 30; 51 in Mathematics 91; 28 in Physics 91; 10 in Biology 91 and 27 in Social Studies 30.

All of these are taught at Victoria High School. A major encouragement to the part-time students is the provincial department of education's "interrupted program" designed for just their needs.

It emphasizes the final-year courses that count in matriculation so that it is possible at night school—as it is not in day school—for an adult to miss some of the prerequisites to Grade XII subjects and still earn his matriculation by passing the final examinations.

Those pursuing the interrupted program courses are all working towards the "university entrance" matriculation standing.

But there are many more adults who lack a matriculation certificate who have partial credits in the high school's "general program" courses and they are expected to flock back to night school too when subjects are offered for them.

"This is under consideration by the department now and is in the office," said Mr. Batey. "We certainly will offer the general program subjects as soon as they are approved on the interrupted basis."

More to Come

"When that happens we will have an even bigger increase in night school students, but for those who are interested, there is no need to wait."

"Many of the subjects we now offer can be used for either university entrance or general program matriculation. The sooner they start the sooner they can finish."

Courses average about $15 each in cost and involve one class a week. But there is plenty of homework assigned and students are discouraged from taking more than one or two courses a year.

They're Keen

Mr. Batey said the night school students are very keen on their studies.

"Although most of them are in the young adult category, they are older than the average high school student and have had a taste of the world outside."

"When they find that they are handicapped by incomplete education, they come back to the classroom with a 'bread and butter' attitude. For another thing, they've had to pay for the courses and they have no desire to waste the time."

FIRE GUTS CLUBHOUSE AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO—Fire of unknown origin Tuesday gutted the interior of the clubhouse at Nanaimo Golf Club causing damage estimated at between $10,000 and $12,000.

A defect in the heating system is considered as a possible cause of the fire. Harwood Fire Department attended.

The building was covered by insurance, and some golf equipment and lockers were saved.

The club is planning new quarters at its 18-hole course under construction on the highway north of the city.

Councils Join In Solving Same Problems

(From Duncan Bureau)

Duncan city and North Cowichan municipal councils held a precedent-setting meeting in the City Hall committee rooms Tuesday night.

It was the first time the elected bodies of the two adjacent areas had met to discuss a wide range of problems of mutual concern, although both conduct their affairs in administrative buildings less than a block apart.

Among the items discussed were water and sewage services and the proposed new health centre.

Both Mayor Jack Dobson and Reeve Don Morton said the meeting was worthwhile and forerunner of many more such meetings between the two groups.

27 Thrown Out of Work As Copper Mine Closes

LAKE COWICHAN—Cowichan Copper Company's Cowichan Lake mine has been shut down and 27 men laid off.

Company officials say the mine is worked out and additional property with substantial proven ore is being sought.

Cowichan Copper started shipping concentrates from its Cowichan Lake mine to Japan in December, 1957. A three-year contract expires Jan. 16, 1961.

At the peak of production, in August last year, 112 men were employed at the mine. The number dropped to 88 in February of this year and was down to 78 in August.

Five men are currently engaged in salvaging equipment from the mine.

NORTH COWICHAN—Preparing for its annual battle against snow and ice on the municipality's 270 miles of road, North Cowichan public works department has purchased three new sand-spreaders.

Total cost was $4,198.

CHEMAINUS—A private ward at Chemainus General Hospital has been furnished and equipped by the Rotary Club as a community service project.

New furniture, drapes, and a new hospital bed have been purchased and the room completely redecorated by the club at a cost of about $600. This amount represents two-thirds of the total cost, the provincial government having paid the balance.

DUNCAN—Board of health of the Central Vancouver Island Health Unit will send a resolution to Health Minister Eric Martin urging establishment of a virus-testing laboratory at Vancouver.

Action was taken after the board was told in Duncan by Dr. C. J. G. MacKenzie, health unit director, that it often takes weeks to get virus infection test reports back from eastern Canadian laboratories.

Biological tests can be made quickly at the provincial health department's Vancouver laboratory, but there are no facilities for testing virus samples.

Dr. MacKenzie said the new health centre building at Ladysmith has provided an improved standard of work and advised that the Kinsmen Club of Duncan is raising funds for construction of a new unit in Duncan to serve the city and municipal areas.

GANGES—Annual meeting of Salt Spring Island Golf Club attracted 70 island residents interested in keeping the course here in operation.

A committee consisting of J. Reid, B. Markham, J. Harvey, T. Sharland, J. West, W. Fisher and Miss M. A. Cummings was appointed to consider addition of a clubhouse and country club facilities to make the club more attractive to tourists and island residents.

No Promise Given On Lake Road Plea

Highways Minister P. A. Gagliardi said Tuesday a new surface for Cowichan Lake Road will depend on next year's budget.

A delegation from the Duncan-Cowichan Chamber of Commerce presented him with a brief asking for reconstruction of the road which runs off the highway to Cowichan Lake.

"We are always sympathetic to requests," said Mr. Gagliardi after the meeting.

"I can't tell you what we will do until I see the budget."

The budget by tradition is brought down some two weeks after the opening of the Legislature Jan. 26.

Chamber president David R. Williams headed the delegation and presented the brief which called for the immediate relocation of eight miles of the road, west from Barker's corner to Charters Crossing at Sahlam, at a cost of $500,000.

ALBERNI SPLIT INTO TWO CAMPS

Pro-Mabel or Anti-Mabel?

ALBERNI—Two groups of candidates will seek election to the city council here Thursday—one of them willing to support controversial Mayor Mabel Anderson, and the other bitterly opposed to her.

Running against Mayor Anderson's "obstructionist tactics" are Alderman Thomas Barnett, one of the mayor's chief foes on council; Thomas E. Hamilton, and Roy C. James.

They are supported by the Alberni Voters' Association, which has sent a petition signed by 776 voters, nearly half the total in this city, to Municipal Affairs Minister Black asking him to call for the resignation of the mayor because of alleged incompetence. Failing this, it seeks a government inquiry into Alberni's municipal affairs.

'I'LL STUDY IT'

(Mr. Black has acknowledged receipt of the petition, but said only that "I will study it.")

(Under the Municipal Act the government can hold a full-scale public inquiry into the affairs of a municipality and could appoint a special commissioner to run it, said a municipal affairs department official, but there is no way the government can remove a mayor from office.)

SIDE WITH MAYOR

Running as independents, but known around the city to be on the mayor's side, are Alderman Gordon Lundine, seeking a second term of office; Edwin A. Beck, and Wilfred McKenzie.

Discord or harmony is the option they offer the voters. They claim, although they disclaim any outward show of support of Mayor Anderson, they can bring harmony to council through being able to work with the mayor. Their campaign literature runs as a package deal, all three candidates together.

Mayor Anderson is sitting on the sidelines giving no indication she is supporting any candidate but observers feel she is working behind the scenes for her "picked men."

"I am not running this year. This is not a good time to speak," she said in a telephone interview.

"I have a very bad cold. I have no comments to make. I don't want to get into any arguments."

Ald. Fred Bishop, an alderman for 10 years, is retiring from civic affairs this year but he emphasized he is retiring for personal reasons and not with a chip on his shoulder because of difficulties with the mayor.

ELECTION TEST

"I think the election will be a test of whether or not the people agree with her," he said.

"Under the present situation, nobody can accomplish anything unless she gets people in who will do as she says—people who will abide by her rulings, right or wrong without question."

Ald. Lundine says he can bring "good harmonious government and sound thinking toward a sound financial administration" to city council.

"I absolutely have no feeling, favorably or unfavorably, toward the mayor," he said.

"The trouble is that a few people support controversy rather than harmony. I am strictly independent and support no particular group."

"My feeling is the election is not so much an aldermanic race as it is a vote of confidence, or non-confidence in the mayor," said Mr. Hamilton, who is seeking election openly as opposed to Mayor Anderson.

Channel Talk Holds Up TV Satellite

COURTENAY—Establishment of a CBC television satellite station here has been held up by Canadian-American discussions on channel allocations. Revenue Minister Nowlan said today in Ottawa.

Mr. Nowlan, who reports to Parliament on broadcasting, informed Harry McQuillan (PC, Comox-Alberni) in the Commons that a settlement in negotiations "is to be expected shortly."

The proposed Courtenay station would be a satellite of the CBC's Vancouver TV station, CBUT.

Funeral Held For Old Resident

DUNCAN—Funeral services were held at St. John's Anglican Church at 2 p.m. Tuesday for Mrs. Ida Mary Hopkins, who died Saturday at King's Daughters' Hospital.

A resident of Duncan for the past 41 years, she came here directly following her marriage in St. Peter's Church, Eaton's Square, London, in 1919.

Well-known throughout the Cowichan district she operated a floral shop on Station Street until 1958.

Services were conducted by Canon Brian T. Page with interment in the family plot at St. Mary's Anglican Church Cemetery, Soanens.

LAVISH NANAIMO BANKS UPSET PRAIRIE SENATOR

OTTAWA (CP)—Banks spend too much prettying up their premises, Senator Ralph Horner (PC—Saskatchewan) complained Tuesday night.

What about these banking show places, invariably on the best location in town? he asked the Senate. He mentioned Nanaimo, as a city where banks appeared to be striving to outdo each other.

"There's no necessity for that" said the farmer from Blaine Lake.

There was no necessity for such extravagance in the conduct of ordinary banking business, he said.

River Plate Foes Rehash Old Battle

By DENNIS NEEDLE
LONDON (AP) — British and German veterans of the Battle of the River Plate met in a London restaurant Tuesday night to rehash the first major naval clash of the Second World War.
The air was heavy with cigar rather than gunsmoke and pepper pots and sherry glasses were manoeuvred instead of ships.
Survivors of the German pocket battleship Admiral Graf Spee were at the reunion with the captains and crew members of the three British warships Exeter, Ajax and Achilles that took part in the engagement.

The reunion of the former enemies, almost 21 years to the day since the battle was fought off the coast of South America, was the idea of Sir Eugen Millington-Drake, who, as British minister in Montevideo, Uruguay, helped force the Graf Spee out of her harbor refuge.
He is compiling an anthology of the battle.

INVITED FOR SHERRY
"I went to Bonn to see some of the German officers concerned and found them so helpful that I thought I ought to invite them over here for sherry," he said.

Said Sir Eugen of the battle: "It was a jolly good fight—a fair and honorable battle. The last to be fought in the old tradition."

After being forced into Montevideo harbor, the German battleship was scuttled by its skipper, Captain Hans Langsdorff, who later committed suicide.

"We could have engaged the three British ships in turn and destroyed them all," contended Captain John Wattenberg, chief navigation officer aboard the Graf Spee.

"Our Captain Langsdorff would have gone down in history as the greatest German hero of our time."

Chief Petty Officer William Johns, whose gun was the only one still working aboard Exeter at the end of the fight, still stuck to his guns Tuesday night.

"You were beaten, overwhelmed," he told the Germans.

Eileen Farrell Hit In Opera Debut

NEW YORK (AP) — The Metropolitan Opera added another major voice to its list of stars Tuesday night: Eileen Farrell.

The buxom soprano from New England, who came to long-hair music via radio, made her Met debut in one of the opera world's most challenging, and most beautiful roles, the title role in Gluck's Alcibiades.

She took solo curtain calls after acts I and II. At the end the audience, standing, was shouting her name and cheering.

AND BRILLIANT DISPLAYS OF SKATING Rich Variety of Costumes In New Ice Capades Show

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

The voice of Caruso, stilled for 40 years, echoes across the chilly ice.

But there is a live orchestra accompanying the voice, and with it an international assembly of famous skaters presenting what is now part of skating history—the Ice Capades.

The voice, of course, comes from an old recording, but the show itself is very much alive and offers a brilliant display of skating to the music of the great masters of opera—Verdi, Von Flotow and Puccini.

Every item on the program comes to life in a rich panoply of color and movement.

Peter Voss is starred in the ice version of Puccini's opera, "Tosca." World champion Aja Zanova is seen in a flashing excerpt from Von Flotow's "Martha," and Rika Schropp in a dramatic selection from Verdi's "Aida."

There is a lavish presentation of Victor Herbert's "Babes in Toyland," a spectacular

Victoria Girl Distinct Favorite

Featured in the 10 separate and distinct productions, are skating stars of many countries, including three British Columbia girls—Marilyn Braun of Victoria, Lorraine Silverthorn of Nanaimo, Louisa Orwell of Kelowna.

Blue-eyed Marilyn is a distinct favorite with the show. This was indicated last Saturday night when at least 12 skaters offered to drive her to the airport so that she could spend the weekend with her family in Victoria.

"Everyone has been wonderful to me," she said. "I've been with them nearly a year."

Mounties Applaud 'Their Number'

Members of the RCMP in Vancouver attended Monday night's performance and applauded the intricate marching manoeuvres performed by skaters in red jackets and blue riding breeches.

"I would have taken in the show just for this item alone," said Constable G. B. Hughes of North Vancouver. "It was really terrific."

Helga Neff, Aja Zanova, Jimmy Grogan and Rika and Lucien Boyer are starred in several breath-taking displays, notably a Caribbean production, "Ice Ca Cha," in which the skaters perform to the sultry dance rhythms of the tropics.

Tickets for the Victoria run next week are now on sale at Eaton's Music Centre. Evening performances will be at 8:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and at 9 p.m. Saturday. There will be matinees at 1:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 17.

B.C. Unimpressed By Pauling Claim

B.C. civil defence leaders are unimpressed by derogatory comments about civil defence shelters made by U.S. scientist Dr. Linus Pauling.

The Nobel prize-winner said in Vancouver fall-out shelters are useless.

But Lawrie Wallace, deputy municipal affairs minister whose department heads up civil defence, said today:

"He is one scientist only. Equally capable scientists have stated otherwise."

"It depends on whom you want to believe."

The deputy minister said the provincial government had "been assured" that use of fallout shelters in the event of nuclear attack would save a great number of lives.

Alligators may live more than 50 years, but the giant tortoises of the Galapagos Islands survive more than a century.

City Church Official Dies In England

Joseph Archer, well-known Victoria churchman, died at Eastbourne, England, on Dec. 1. It was learned here today.

He was 76 and was holidaying in England with his grandson when death overtook him. His wife died here on Aug. 1 last.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer lived at 2162 Brighton and were active members of Oak Bay United Church. Mr. Archer served on the church council, engaged in Sunday School work and was a member of the church's extension committee.

In this connection he turned the first sod for construction of the new Cadboro Bay United Church last April.

"We shall miss him greatly," Rev. Alexander Calder, minister of Oak Bay United, said today.

Mr. Archer was a loyal supporter of the British and Foreign Bible Society and a regular contributor to The Upper Room, an international devotional booklet.

His daughter Margaret is Mrs. Hugh Stanley Ellis, whose husband is engaged in research work at the University of Alberta. His son John is in business at Beaverlodge, Alta., and another son William is a church minister.

Funeral services will be held at Beaverlodge Thursday after which the ashes will be brought to Royal Oak Cemetery, Victoria.

AGED WOMAN STRUCK

3 Pedestrians Hurt In Traffic Mishaps

Four people, three of them pedestrians, were hurt in traffic accidents Tuesday night.

Most seriously hurt is 79-year-old Mrs. Ethel Gee, 1760 Haultain. She is in "satisfactory" condition at Royal Jubilee Hospital with a broken arm, forehead and leg bruises received when she was struck by a car at Shelbourne and Haultain.

Police say Mrs. Gee was crossing Shelbourne when a car driven by Gordon Weismiller, 420 Langford, pulled out from a stop sign on Haultain to make a left turn south onto Shelbourne.

Two other women pedestrians were admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital after they were struck by a car on old Island Highway near Parson's Bridge.

Mrs. Lillian James, 63, 219 Hart, has head cuts and her companion, Mrs. Audrey Watt,

The jury of seven women and five men returned the verdict shortly before 10 a.m. They received the case at 5:40 Tuesday.

Conviction on the original charge of second degree assault means Simmons will be required to forfeit his office unless there is a reversal on appeal.

The charge has a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and $1,000 fine.

Simmons was accused of trying to seduce Mrs. Betty Adams, wife of a 24-year-old warehouseman, after she went to see him about a $30 speeding ticket last July 14.

In the final arguments, Simmons' attorney, Laurence D. Regal, said the judge was the victim of a "brazen frameup," and that the damage to his career as a result of the publicity accorded the case was sufficient punishment.

Joel A. C. Rindal, chief criminal deputy prosecutor, termed the judge "a public official who had violated his trust."

The state's case rested largely on the testimony of Mrs. Adams, whom Regal described as "Miss Wide-eyes and shifty story."

Impaired Driver Gets 20 Days On Second Count

One impaired driver was sent to jail for 20 days and another was fined $250 when they pleaded guilty in city police court today to charges arising out of overnight accidents.

Charles G. White, 3369 Cook, was sent to jail for his second impaired driving conviction since July, 1954.

His car was in collision with another auto at Douglas and Frances Tuesday night.

Gordon Corkroft, 2875 Glen Lake, was the other man charged after his car crashed into a power pole on Pembroke between Quadra and Vancouver shortly after midnight.

Bennett Invites Premiers Here

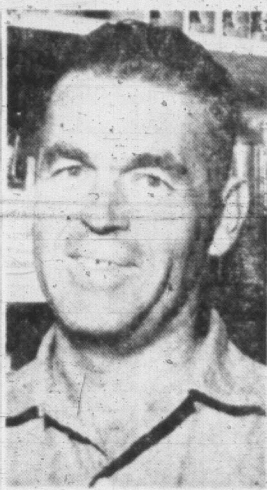

Premier W. A. C. Bennett said today he has invited the premiers of Canada's other provinces to come to a conference in Victoria in 1962.

Just back from a provincial premiers meeting at Quebec City, Mr. Bennett said the time and date will be set at a 1961 meeting in Charlotte-town, P.E.I.

"It was a very historic meeting," he said of the Quebec session. "It is a new approach to Canadian unity."

Train, Crane Collide

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Thirteen persons were injured, none severely, when a speeding Milwaukee Road passenger train crashed into a stalled trailer truck, hauling a three-quarter-ton crane, at a crossing here late Monday.

FOR OUTSTANDING gardening and horticultural activities, David Weir, 1645 Edgeware, was awarded the Whiteoak Memorial trophy at a meeting of the Victoria Horticultural Society Tuesday. More than 175 members turned up for the presentation at Connaught Hall. Mr. Weir over the past several years has done much to promote gardening as a hobby in the Greater Victoria area.

BROKE but happy, jobless Morris P. Quintard, 43, reads Bible in his small hotel after giving away life savings of $2,500 in $5 and $10 bills to transients and laborers in Portland, Ore. ON DRUG RING

Ex-addict Swears Vengeance

MONTREAL (CP)—RCMP said today that a Canadian now testifying in New York in a federal narcotics case is the same man who helped smash an international drug ring last year.

Police said Edward L. Smith, 29, a native of Yarmouth, N.S., broke the drug habit after two narcotics convictions. He was being rehabilitated when "someone close to him" was lured into addiction by a peddler.

He swore vengeance and began a crusade against narcotics," police said.

Smith testified Tuesday in New York that he was offered $100,000 a year to shuttle narcotics between New York and Montreal. Twenty-one men are on trial in the case.

Last year, Smith's links with the underworld allowed him to work his way into a narcotics gang here. Later, he introduced a United States treasury agent as a buyer for another ring.

The action led to conviction of Giuseppe Cotroni, now serving 10 years in St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary.

2 Guerrillas Shot By Castro Troops

HAVANA (UPI)—Anti-government guerrillas battled Premier Fidel Castro's troops all day Tuesday near the road junction town of Corralillo, 120 miles east of here in Santa Clara province, it was reported today.

Informants said two soldiers captured by the guerrillas were shot and killed by firing squads after summary Castro-style "trials."

Gelling Unimpressed By 'Crisis in Morals'

Greater Victoria School Board chairman W. C. Gelling Monday defended a trustee-elect who is married to a teacher.

R. B. Hilton, candidate for a Saanich seat on the school board, criticized over the weekend the election by acclamation of Ralph Fryer as one of the city's representatives.

Mr. Hilton said it involved a "crisis in morals" because Mr. Fryer was married to a teacher and this could lead to a "direct pipeline" between board and teachers which might harm either or both during salary negotiations.

ACT PROPERLY

Mr. Gelling said he could not see why a trustee's spouse should not be a teacher.

"I don't think any trustee would take advantage of such a situation to the detriment of teachers or that any teacher would do anything to the detriment of the school board," he said.

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Beverly Aadland's chaperone, Joy Ellers, quit—got tired of travelling; the young singer cancelled her N.Y.C. cafe job till she finds a replacement guardian. Guess who's got Kim Novak's phone number—Desi Arnaz... William Bendix agreed to tour with "Take Me Along".... Sandra Church (of "Under the Yum Yum Tree") spends her day off in Boston, 'cause Jule Styne's there with "Do Re Mi".

Adlai Stevenson, in the audience at "Advise and Consent," got an ovation... Otto Preminger won't reveal how much it cost to film "Exodus"; he tells guizzers, "The cost?—$3.50 at the box office".... Bette Davis has begun her autobiography... Natalie Wood and Bob Wagner, who just finished decorating their new home, are doing it all over again....

KIM NOVAK
... Dialed by Desi

ROCKY GRAZIANO

Cuban ex-Pres Batista wants to buy actor Hume Cronyn's secluded Children's Bay Island... Tuesday Weld'll fly to Australia to film "Pity Me Not," with Barbara Stanwyck... Famed singer Ethel Waters is readying a comeback via recordings... Stewart Gran- ger begins filming "Sodom and Gomorrah" in Israel in January... Anna Maria Al- berghetti dated Julio DeBene- detto, "Candid Camera" pro- ducer... Rocky Graziano says he won't go into show business as a single, explaining: "To me show business is like boxing—I can't do it alone."

Showman Joe Levine, who gives parties frequently, gave one at the Four Seasons, then gave another at Lindy's to an- nounce he wouldn't give any more... Actor Patric Knowles had his first novel published: "Even Steven"... Singer Connie Francis is around with another vocalist, Dick Roman.

EARL'S PEARLS: Don't cry over spilled milk, philosophizes Jack Herbert. Just be thankful it wasn't liquor.

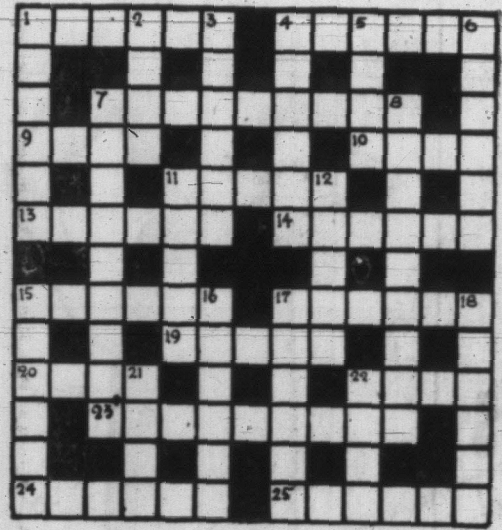

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A youngster brought home his report card with this notation on it: "The boy's handwriting is so bad we can't tell whether he can spell."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The way apartments are constructed nowadays, you may not get to know your neighbor, but you get to hear him. It's getting so that all the average man can afford to put away for a rainy day is a pair of dry socks... That's earl, brother.

Mystery Trip By Prosecutor

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—Attorney-General Gideon Hausner, who will lead the prosecution—of Adolf Eich- mann, left Israel Monday on a secret mission. His destination was not disclosed.
The Tel Aviv newspaper Haboker said Hausner planned to meet Eichmann's German defence counsel, Dr. Robert Servatius, to see if he really is planning to resign as re- ported.

Fines of $315 For Three Driving Offences

Fines totalling $315 were set in city police court Tuesday for Paul M. Worthey, HMC Dock- yard, whose car was in col- lision with two cars on Shel- bourne recently.
He pleaded guilty to driving while under suspension and was fined $125; to careless driving, and was fined $40, and was found-guilty of fail- ing to remain at the scene of an accident, drawing $150 fine.
Magistrate William Ostler also prohibited him from driv- ing anywhere in Canada for two years, noting that the only thing that saved him from a jail term was a favor- able report from his superior officer and defence by counsel Kenneth Murphy. Northey had a 1958 conviction for fail- ing to stay at the scene of ac- cident.

HE GIVES AWAY GRAND PRIZES
Is there something you want to know? Do you want to win a set of valuable books or other instructive prizes? Then ask Andy. Andy will answer questions submitted by child readers and those who submit the questions he selects to answer will receive worthwhile prizes. The youngster who asks the first question answered each day receives a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia, and of the second question a Hammond Atlas of Globe.
Address your questions to "Ask Andy," Victoria Daily Times.
Andy sends a complete, 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia to Penny Wright, age 10, of Orangeville, Ont., for her question:
What are the marsupials?

Last week, a rather close-ly grown he may stand seven feet tall and tip the scales at 200 pounds. The cuddly koala bear is equally small at birth and he may be several years old before he gives up the security of mam- ma's pouch entirely.
All marsupial babies are fed on mother's milk, which means that these animals must be classed as mam- mals. The spiny anteater lays eggs, but when her babies hatch they too feed on mother's milk. They also must be classed as mammals. The baby marsupial finds his milk sup- ply right there inside moth- er's cosy pouch.
Most of the marsupials are gentle vegetarians. A few of them eat flesh or insects. The biggest of these is the thylac- ine, alias the marsupial wolf, alias the marsupial tiger. He is no bigger than a collie dog and hence no threat to the mighty kangaroo. He dines on wallabies and the small ratty and mousy marsupials. This toothy fellow has a dog- like head and a striped back.
The so-called Tasmanian devil resembles a bewildered bear cub. He too is a meat- eater. There is also the mar- supial spotted cat who preys upon the marsupial rats, mice and on insects. The marsupial mole is, of course, a born bur- rower and he feeds upon worms—which are not marsu- pials. The bandicoot is a long- eared badger type marsupial who eats vegetables and in- sects.
Marsupial babies are born very small and quite helpless. A baby kangaroo is about as big as your little finger and just as bare. He lives for six months in his mother's won- derful fur-lined pouch. When

Two Candidates In Sharp Clash Over Policies

Saanich candidates wound up their election campaigns at a public meeting Tuesday with lively debates on planning and zoning issues and the need to attract industries to the municipality.

The election forum was held at the CCF Hall on Richmond. Voting will be held Thursday at 13 polls located at the following places:

WHERE TO VOTE

CCF Hall, Douglas Street; Gordon Head Community Hall, Tyndall Avenue; Hampton Hall, Hampton Road; Lake Hill Women's Institute Hall, Quadra Street; Lansdowne Junior High School; McMoran's Seaview Room, Cordova Bay Road; Marigold Scout Hall; Mount View High School; Prospect Lake School; Royal Oak Women's Institute Hall, West Saanich Road; St. George's the Martyr Hall; St. Luke's Hall; Cedar Hill Cross Road; St. Martin's in the Fields Hall, Obed Avenue.

Voters will vote for three candidates from a slate of 12.

Albert Hull and Cunningham MacMillan told 35 people who turned up at the Tuesday's meeting that if past Saanich councils had followed town planning principles, Saanich would not be faced with so many problems today.

Coun. Ainslee Worthington and Coun. Harold Todd, both seeking re-election, said they were opposed to ribbon commercial development along Shelbourne Street.

Candidates Robert Fleming, Lionel Speller and Frank Beamish spoke on the need to attract industry, but Robert Chard argued that they were being "unrealistic."

"We are too far from the big markets," he said.

MONDAY FIREWORKS

Mrs. Mira Yarwood urged ratepayers to support town planning principles as a means of curbing rising taxes.

Stanley Eden said he favored planning for the present and foreseeable future, but urged planners to "leave some responsibility for the rising generation."

Most of the pre-election fireworks were sparked Monday by former Reeve George Casey and councillor Todd.

They quarrelled over a grant to Victoria College, municipal staff cuts and water rates.

Ex-reeve Joseph Casey said he objected to Saanich council making a $15,000 grant for the development of Victoria College without first seeking the consent of ratepayers.

Coun. Harold Todd, seeking re-election, said council had authority under the Municipal Act to make the grant.

"I think it is a worthwhile cause," he said. "A university will benefit the whole of Greater Victoria. I'm certain ratepayers support such a project. All other municipalities have made grants in the same manner."

DON'T COMPLAIN

Mr. Casey said he favored a reduction in municipal staff, particularly in the engineering department, because construction and other businesses have slowed down in Saanich.

Mr. Todd replied: "A staff cut would mean a reduction of services. That's all right if you want it that way. But don't complain."

Saanich two months ago completed a survey to see if the staff could be reduced, he explained.

"We can lay off four firemen but that will mean closing down a fire hall. I'm sure the people in the area would oppose this."

Mr. Casey charged Coun. Todd with stating untruths with regard to the financing of the Saanich waterworks system.

CLASH OVER RATES

Mr. Todd told the meeting that water rates had gone up due to rising costs.

"What about the profits that are made from water?" asked Mr. Casey. "You are stating untruths."

Mr. Todd flashed back at Mr. Casey: "I challenge Mr. Casey or anyone else here to prove that I've stated untruths."

Mr. Casey did not accept the challenge.

"Mr. Casey knows very well that every bit of money that is made from the sale of water is ploughed back into the water system," added Mr. Todd. "Apart from maintenance we have miles of two-inch pipe to replace."

Stanley Eden, Albert Hull and Cunningham S. McMillan promised to do their utmost to prevent the mill rate from rising next year.

Beatrice Mundell advocated a more extensive sidewalk and street lighting program.

The meeting reached a lively pitch when Lionel Speller said that Reeve George Chatterton's policies were "all wrong."

He said the provincial government had made generous grants to Saanich.

SOCRED PROPAGANDA

"Never has this municipality been so well treated," he said. A voice from the audience shouted, "Socred, Socred —" stop selling us this social credit propaganda."

Mrs. Mira Yarwood supported Reeve Chatterton's policies. "I believe in the principle that councillors should seek the advice of its experts and the best professional advice," she said.

Coun. Ainslee Worthington, seeking re-election, said council should seriously consider constructing a health centre at its new Swan Lake civic centre.

THIRD cabinet post was filled by president-elect John Kennedy today. He named Representative Stewart Udall of Arizona interior secretary. Kennedy said Tuesday he expects to name his state secretary soon.

Missing Couple Mystery Solved

LONDON (Reuters) — Scot-man had been married 14 months when he vanished Nov. 26, 1956, with his 37-year-old wife, a widow with six children by a previous marriage and reputed to be wealthy.

An intensive hunt by Scotland Yard covering three continents failed to produce a trace of the couple. Love's picture was shown on television screens in Canada, Australia and other countries.

Police today said the remains dredged from the Thames came from two bodies — one male and one female. The wreck of an old car pulled from the water Monday was identified as belonging to the Loves.

A senior detective from the Yard said: "It could be murder and suicide."

Import Restrictions Will Solve Nothing

By BRUCE HUTCHISON
The thinking of British business, as partially outlined in a previous report, is not confined to Britain's need for higher industrial efficiency, a growth in output per man-hour and a reduction in costs.

Hutchison

As the spokesman of the Federation of British Industries, Britain's parliament of business, told this reporter in London, the developing British balance-of-payments dilemma is only one aspect of the free world's dilemma. What are the prospects of the world economy, the movement of goods, between all nations, above all, the chance of general economic growth without which no important problem can possibly be solved?

Considering these questions as they begin to press urgently for an answer, the federation's spokesman recalled that Britain had abandoned free trade and installed a relatively high tariff system some 30 years ago.

"It has taken us all this time," he said, "to see the return to high tariffs. Even if it was wise then—needs to be reversed now."

Freer Trade

Britain, he said, needed freer trade throughout the world not only to increase its exports and solve its immediate exchange difficulties but also to increase the efficiency of its whole industrial machine for the future. The foreign competition induced by freer trade would force British industry to become more efficient because it would have to be more competitive.

Precisely that process is under way among the six nations of the European Common Market where tariffs between the members are coming down rapidly and forcing each to produce at maximum efficiency, minimum cost. The growing competitive strength of the six, as the spokesman of British business said, leaves Britain no alternative but to imitate or exceed this good example in the management of its own industry.

In considering these problems at home, British business is also considering its markets in Canada—and with sharp anxiety. The Federation of British Industries, its spokesman said, "has to consider the Canadian government's attitude towards the British market."

Net Deficit

Canadians, he added, should remember that Britain had recently removed almost all its special quota restrictions on imports, with spectacular and beneficial results for Canada.

Britain's purchases in Canada during the first eight months of this year, he said, had risen 25 per cent above the figures for the same period of 1959. In the same eight months Britain had exported about $400 millions worth of goods to Canada and bought nearly $700 millions worth here. (Mr. Fleming's later figures for nine months show a Canadian surplus on this trade of $233 millions.)

Invisible Exports

It was true, the federation's spokesman agreed under questioning, that such figures for commodity trade did not tell the whole story, since Britain made various invisible exports to Canada in the form of shipping charges, insurance, business, tourism and other things. But all factors considered, Britain still was running a substantial net deficit in the Canadian market.

In theory, he went on, "Britain can buy far more from Canada than it sells there, provided that it can earn enough hard convertible currency in other markets. But only in theory. In practical fact we can't possibly sell enough in other markets to maintain a heavy deficit in Canada. We must sell more in Canada if we are to buy more there, or even maintain our present rate of buying. Our capacity to buy in Canada is definitely limited by our capacity to sell there."

Hurt Canada

British business, he said, thoroughly understood the reasons for Canada's latest restrictions on such British imports as automobiles, but Britain also knew that it had not damaged but had greatly benefited Canada's exports. Canada's huge over-all trade deficit, mostly in "invisibles," had not developed in Britain but mainly in the United States.

"Frankly," he said, "we think that Canada can't possibly solve its problem by import restrictions. They'll only worsen your situation by reducing trade and also by precipitating, within Canada, a slow spiral of higher costs and lower production efficiency of production, by holding your costs down."

Serious Notice

"In the meantime I can tell you candidly that if Canada imposes any more restrictions on British goods the federation will take very serious notice of it."

This warning, in typical British understatement, is more important than most Canadians probably realize. For the federation is a primary power in British society much stronger than any corresponding organization in Canada. A warning from the federation can safely be considered a warning from Britain.

It is estimated that only five per cent of Canadians over 65 are able to live on their income and that one in four continues working.

MRS. L. FRATANONIO

'Sleeping Beauty' Mother Convicted

CLEVELAND (AP)—A juvenile court jury Tuesday convicted Mrs. Lillian Fratanonio of charges that she mistreated her "sleeping beauty" daughters by secretly feeding them sleep-inducing drugs.

The judge said he will order psychiatric examinations for Mrs. Fratanonio, who was accused by the prosecution of bringing her two daughters close to death by feeding them barbiturates which kept them in prolonged comas.

The girls, Bernadette, 3, and Venita, 6, now are in custody of a charity home.

FOR B.C. ELECTRIC

'All Canada' Tag Cost $2 Million

The B.C. Electric Company will spend almost $2,000,000 to complete a 34-year plan of becoming Canada-owned.

The money will buy out shares in the B.C. Electric Railway Co. now held mostly in England, and pay up debenture issues.

The provincial government and B.C. Public Utilities Commission have given their approval to the last steps in winding up the old railway company, which before 1926 ran the streetcars and railways in B.C.

ONLY 5%

Originally an English concern, the railway company after 1926 was gradually swallowed up in the B.C. Electric Co. until only some 5 per cent of its shares remain outside Canada.

B.C. Electric Railway Co. continued in name only separately to operate urban transit, rail-freight and electrical distribution.

In fact it was part of B.C. Electric. Now it becomes legally one company. The old company registered in England will be wound up. The books will in future carry only the accounts of BCE.

SIMPLER

BCE must purchase about $260,000 worth of shares and prematurely pay up $461,000 worth of debenture stock. Added up and converted to dollars at the current rate of exchange, this comes to almost $2,000,000.

"The deal will have no effect on our services, on the public or any of our employees," said a company official. "But it will simplify our bookkeeping and make us one Canadian-owned corporation."

More of Everything

Well, here we are, only 15 shopping days till Christmas, and how far have you got with your gift-buying? Relax, relax — no matter how daunting the list, remember that EATON'S can help you out. There's so much more to choose from at EATON'S — just make up your list, hurry downtown, park free at our new Customer Carpark (room for 2,000 cars daily) and make your choice from thousands of suitable gifts.

Is Money Outmoded?

Not quite, but the idea of paying cash each time you buy something is a little out of date. It's so much more convenient to say, "Charge it, please," give the clerk your account number, and that's it! No waiting for change — no loose cash to lose. Probably the most useful account of all is EATON'S Budget-Charge — once it's open you can charge anything from a pair of socks to a refrigerator without having to return to the Accounts Office. You don't have to pay in full when you receive your statement — as little as 16.00 monthly is all you need pay on a balance of 305.00.

Can This Be True?

Indeed it can! If you'll inquire at the Accounts Office on the Third Floor, you'll find just how to solve all your Christmas money problems. Open a Budget-Charge Account — shop anywhere in the store except food departments... Buy Christmas-Cards... candy, car-seat covers, checkerboards — anything you please. After Christmas you'll receive a statement listing all your purchases with the original bills for you to check. Suppose you spent 450.00 — your payment will be only 23.00 a month, including service charge! Inquire now — EV 2-7141 is the phone number.

Fingers All Thumbs?

Believe it or not... an EATON Budget-Charge Account can even settle that difficulty! If gift-wrapping is a major problem, and the results of your efforts look like a modernistic sculpture, don't despair! Take your gifts to our second floor Gift Wrap — tell the expert behind the counter what kind of a wrap you'd like, and leave the problems up to her. Your gift will be a "stand-out" beneath the tree, in a package almost too pretty to open. The modest cost may be charged to your account.

The
Word

The last word in gifts is an EATON Gift Certificate, when you just don't know what to give, or you haven't time to shop. EATON Gift Certificates may be purchased in denominations from 50c up, and are redeemable at face value in any EATON Store across Canada.

They come in an attractive gift envelope.

SHOPPING TRIP
RUSE TO GET
JEWELS BACK?

LONDON (AP) — The Duke and Duchess of Windsor arrived from Paris today to do their Christmas shopping. But an informant said they also were on a hush-hush mission in search of jewels stolen from them in 1945.

A source close to Scotland Yard said the Windsors were hopeful of recovering Royal Family heirlooms, worth $84,000 stolen from them while they were guests at Ednam Lodge near rural Sunningham 15 years ago.

Early this year Scotland Yard caught a burglar who police said confessed stealing the royal jewelry. He is serving a prison sentence.

Scotland Yard said an indirect appeal from the Windsors may persuade the prisoner to talk.

DOLLAR PAYMENTS DEMANDED

Canada's Exports
To Cuba Doubled

By VICTOR MACKIE

Times Ottawa Correspondent

OTTAWA—Exports by Canada to Cuba during October

cording to the Dominion

Bureau of Statistics.

October exports of Canadian produce totalled $1,671,269,

tober, 1959.

Meantime the announcement by Premier Fidel Castro that a commerce mission has been named to go to Canada to expand trade with this country has come as a surprise to official Ottawa.

The delegation is not coming by invitation and the federal government has not had any "official" word that the group will be coming to Canada.

In the 10 months ending with October exports of Canadian produce to Cuba only totalled $9,172,927 compared

period 1959.

One of the difficulties facing

shortage of dollars. Canadians have insisted that Cuba make

in dollars.

Cuban authorities, because that country is experiencing a shortage of dollars, may seek to float a loan in Canada.

Also named to the delegation was the chief of the na-

dilio Castellanos Garcia. His inclusion hinted at efforts to

lar reserves on Oct. 31 at $91-

100,000 against outstanding ob-

HAVANA (AP) — Premier

Fidel Castro today named a high-powered commerce mission to go to Canada in an effort to expand trade between the two countries.

Makeup of the mission, whose departure date was un-

serves virtually are exhausted

standing obligations.

With the U.S. sugar market

MOON FLASHES FALSE SIGNAL OF AIR ATTACK

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The Strategic Air Command said today the moon fooled electronic defence gadgetry into flashing a warning of a missile attack. But a quick check uncovered the error and there was no alert of SAC's world-wide bomber and missile force, a spokesman said.

The previously unreported incident occurred Oct. 5. SAC said computers at the Ballistics Missile Early Warning System station at Thule, Greenland, mistook radar signals bounced off the moon as coming from a missile approaching the United States from Russia.

The signal was flashed on a screen in SAC's underground control centre. A check disclosed the error almost immediately — "in less than 60 seconds," the spokesman said.

Faces Trial
In Land Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — James Hoffa, president of the Teamsters' Union, was indicted by a federal grand jury at Orlando, Fla., today on mail fraud charges involving misuse of union funds. Attorney General William Rogers, who announced the indictment, said it also names Henry Lower, former president of a Detroit Teamsters local, and Robert McCarthy Jr., one-time branch manager of the Bank of the Commonwealth, Detroit.

Rogers said the indictment accuses the three of using more than $500,000 of Teamsters' funds in a land development project in Florida.

The indictment charges use of the mails to defraud on eight occasions, and use of interstate telephone or telegraph service for the same purpose on four other occasions.

The land development project was launched in 1954 by a company known as Sun Valley Inc., which maintained its principal offices in Detroit with Lower as president.

The indictment said Sun Valley's operating funds came from four Detroit Teamster locals—Truck Drivers No. 299, Food and Beverage Drivers No. 337, Automobile Drivers No. 376 and Teamsters Joint Council 43.

SEE PLAN TO DEFAUD The grand jury charged that Hoffa, Lower and McCarthy schemed to defraud these four Teamster units, and falsely represented that Sun Valley was sponsored by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, whereas it was owned, operated and controlled by Hoffa and Lower.

Hoffa and Lower were accused of using Sun Valley funds for their personal use. The grand jury said the land development was represented as an ideal location for retired Teamsters and that building lots were advertised as being "all on high, dry and rolling land, whereas in fact, many of the lots offered and sold were so low and permeated with water as to make them unsuitable for construction of homes and dwellings."

According to the indictment, Hoffa urged Teamster locals and members to co-operate in promotion of Sun Valley and that Hoffa and Lower sold lots acquired for about $18 each to union members and others at prices ranging from $150 to more than $1,000.

The frauds charged are punishable by imprisonment of up to five years and a fine of up to $1,000 or both on each count.

The justice department announced that Lower had been taken into custody at Detroit. The others at that time were still at large.

Hoffa, who was in Chicago for union conferences, could not be reached for comment.

THE DANGERS OF "TIMOROUS APPREHENSION"

"...I am well aware of a number of public statements made during the past year in influential quarters, warning against the over-expansion of Canadian productive capacity, misdirection of such capacity and of over-borrowing, particularly for capital purposes and especially when such borrowing is done in foreign capital markets. I think it is well that these warnings have been uttered and that these matters of fundamental concern have been brought into the forefront of public discussion. But at the same time I cannot but feel that so much emphasis on the dangers of over-expansion and of over-borrowing, domestic or foreign, may also be conducive to a state of timorous apprehension in which all expansion, and all increases in indebtedness, become, as it were, suspect.

"This country has attained its economic stature and living standards in no small measure by virtue of having abundant natural resources for which there are markets elsewhere, and which must be developed on a large scale and by large injections of capital, if they are to be developed at all. It is not unnatural that to some extent the necessary capital has been provided from outside our own borders by those who need the resources that are being developed.

"Moreover, Canada as a world trader must keep pace with the technological advances that are going on around her. I suggest that if we are to continue to develop our resources and keep abreast of innovation and modernization by our competitors, we shall do well not to be too fearful of prudent expansion and improvement, and of the financing that is entailed."

Land-Grab in U.S. Worries Lumbermen

Forest Parley Opens in City

Increased conflict over forest land use, need for substantial local markets for forest products and the threat of federal interference in U.S. forest operations were brought to the attention of the 500 delegates to the 51st annual conference of the Western Forestry and Conservation Association by opening session speakers this morning at the Empress Hotel.

Association president Hugh J. Hodgins of Vancouver issued a call for "reasonable and co-operative thinking and planning."

He said that policies "must recognize the urgency of adopting and following a fully integrated multiple use plan whereby recreational, industrial and other uses are combined harmoniously."

Mr. Hodgins, vice-president, timber, for Crown Zellerbach Canada Ltd., declared: "There is no room for dedicated thinking in this area... it is extremely important that we eliminate the ivory tower attitude in land use management."

LAND GRAB

The association's forest counsel, Hardin R. Glascock of Portland, stressed the sharpening nature of the land use conflict in the U.S. when he told the delegates:

"A gigantic, 10-year crash program has been launched to grab land in the U.S.—including commercial forest land—for exclusive and limited recreational use. The frantic slogan: 'What we get in the next 10 years will be all that we get,' is spurring on these efforts."

Mr. Glascock also warned that a federal program of aid and interference is underway in the U.S. forest industry. "Such a program for forestry is already blueprinted to the tune of half a billion dollars annually, according to the statements of a retired U.S. government official before the recent meeting of the Association of Consulting Foresters in Washington, D.C.," Mr. Glascock said.

He added that it was the same type of program and interference which had proved so eminently unsuccessful in American agriculture. Keynote speaker at the three-day session which has brought together top industrial and government forestry officials from Alaska, western Canada, the U.S. Northwest and Hawaii, was Corydon Wagner, long-time lumberman recently retired from the St. Paul and Tacoma Lumber Co. of Tacoma.

Mr. Wagner warned that forestry programs may languish unless substantial local markets for a variety of needed products are developed.

He said new methods and forms in wood use have tended to de-emphasize the past importance of individual tree species for such qualities as strength, workability and durability.

PAST GLORY

Stumpage prices for such historically favored species as Douglas fir persisted at peak levels more as a tribute to past glory than for present-day product value relationships, he said.

"Our promotional staffs must either develop markets willing and able to pay for special and superior qualities inherent in certain species or we must expect reductions in stumpage values to the general level," Mr. Wagner declared.

GLEN HAMILTON... after Pearkes' seat

New Party Candidate Welfare Man

A social worker is expected to be the New Party candidate for the federal Esquimalt-Saanich riding, it was learned today.

Glen Hamilton, 40, director of the Silver Threads Agency, is the only nominee to date, R. Desmond Sparham, national New Party Club organizer said here today. Nominations close at midnight tonight.

Mr. Sparham said as he left Victoria after organizing a New Party Club in Esquimalt-Saanich, that Mr. Hamilton's name was proposed at a meeting of CCF, Labor and New Party Club representatives Tuesday.

"I'm sure he will win the seat for the New Party, as it won in Peterborough," said Mr. Sparham. "He is the type of man who will appeal to all those who are of the left of centre of democratic opinion in Canada."

Born at Roblin, Man., Mr. Hamilton came to B.C. in 1920. He attended Victoria College and got a master's degree in social work at University of B.C.

He said he favored the suggestion that the statue be replaced with a bronze replica in the hopes that it would end vandalism that has centred on the controversial statue.

A civic reception committee commissioned sculptress Peggy Walton Packard to create the statue to commemorate the visit of Queen Elizabeth to the park in 1958.

WHERE TO GO?

The concrete bust was not ready for the visit as planned and later an argument over payment and location of the bust broke out among the four municipalities.

After being stored in the city works yard, the bust was moved to the City Hall lobby temporarily to give council time to decide where it would go.

Pranksters stole it from the lobby one night while a gladiolus society meeting was in progress upstairs. It was found three days later on the lawn of the Olde England Inn and college students were generally blamed as the culprits.

FOR REEVE

Ray M. Lamont, of 2946 Lamont, employee in the freight department of Trans-Canada Air Lines, has been a member of every council since the municipality was formed in 1950, and resigned his seat to run for the reeveship.

R. Gordon Lee, 931 Clark, is retired. Coming here from the Yukon, and a councillor since 1958, he will stress careful control and administration of finances. Mr. Lee was a councillor in the Yukon for nine years.

FOR TWO-YEAR COUNCIL TERM

Mrs. Gladys Ronson, 7129 Hagan, is a member of the council and seeks re-election. Resident of Brentwood since 1941, she represented Central Saanich on South Vancouver Island Union Board of Health and library board.

A. K. (Bert) Hemstreet, 7709 East Saanich, a justice of the peace and former police commissioner, has been a resident of the district for 13 years. He had 20 years as a community club president in the north, and six years experience as a school board chairman.

Thomas R. Michell, 6941

Mount Newton Cross Road, is a former policeman and now a security guard. A member of the council now completing a two-year term, he seeks re-election to the one-year seat.

Kelly Troup, 982 Marchants, and one of the younger candidates, is a school bus driver and 20-year resident of the area. Member of Brentwood Community Club and a volunteer fireman, he is a former municipal employee.

Island Ministers Escape Plane Crash

ALERT BAY (CP) — Two United Church ministers escaped injury today when their Cessna float plane crashed as they were taking off from Alert Bay on a flight to Port Alice near the northern end of Vancouver Island. Rev. William Van Drogen and Rev. Chris Jack, both of Nanaimo, were flying to Alice Arm to speak to a newly-formed congregation at the west coast logging and fishing community. The plane is reported to have been extensively damaged.

Union Chief Faces Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — James Hoffa, president of the Teamsters' Union, was indicted by a federal grand jury at Orlando, Fla., today on mail fraud charges involving misuse of union funds.

Attorney General William Rogers, who announced the indictment, said it also names Henry Lower, former president of a Detroit Teamsters local, and Robert McCarthy Jr., one-time branch manager of the Bank of the Commonwealth, Detroit.

Rogers said the indictment accuses the three of using more than $500,000 of Teamsters' funds in a land development project in Florida.

The indictment charges use of the mails to defraud on eight occasions, and use of interstate telephone or telegraph service for the same purpose on four other occasions.

The land development project was launched in 1954 by a company known as Sun Valley.

Gangs Loot Flooded Farms

LONDON (CP) — Looters moved in today as fog and ice brought added peril to Britain, already experiencing some of the worst floods in living memory.

Gangs with boats were reported to be looting farms, stores and trucks stranded by floodwaters. Ice patches on hundreds of roads were reported in districts stretching from Glasgow to the south coast resort of Brighton and there were widespread reports of fog.

At Southampton, the transatlantic liner Queen Elizabeth was delayed in docking by heavy fog. Visibility at London Airport was restricted, causing delays and diversions. Meanwhile, mopping up operations were attempted in areas of England and Wales. The hardest-hit regions are southwestern England and southern Wales.

Rival Plans On Congo Before UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP) — The Soviet Union and the Western powers laid before the UN Security Council today rival proposals dealing with the arrest and detention of deposed premier Patrice Lumumba and other Congolese leaders.

The council also heard a demand by U.S. delegate James Wadsworth that Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin disqualify himself as council president on the ground that the Soviet position would make him too prejudiced.

Zorin rejected the demand. He denied that the Soviet Union had any direct connection with the latest events in the Congo. For this reason, he said, there is no valid ground for the U.S. move.

The Soviet resolution called for the immediate release of Lumumba, the disarming of Congo forces headed by strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu and the expulsion of all Belgian military and civilian personnel.

The Western proposal — sponsored by the United States, Britain, Italy and Argentina — appealed for the respect of human rights of all persons held prisoner in the Congo. This would include not only Lumumba and his aides, but also Congolese held by Lumumba supporters in Stanleyville.

Castro Trade Mission Coming to Canada

Canada's Exports To Cuba Doubled

By VICTOR MACKIE

Times Ottawa Correspondent
OTTAWA — Exports by Canada to Cuba during October have more than doubled over the same month last year, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

October exports of Canadian produce totalled $1,671,269 compared with $808,897 in October, 1959.

Meantime the announcement by Premier Fidel Castro that a commerce mission had been named to go to Canada to expand trade with this country has come as a surprise to official Ottawa.

The delegation is not coming by invitation and the federal government has not had any "official" word that the group will be coming to Canada.

In the 10 months ending with October exports of Canadian produce to Cuba totalled $9,172,927 compared with $12,069,475 in the same period 1959.

One of the difficulties facing Cuba in its trade relations with Canada is a growing shortage of dollars. Canadians have insisted that Cuba make its purchases in this country in dollars.

Cuban authorities, because that country is experiencing a shortage of dollars, may seek to float a loan in Canada.

HAVANA (AP) — Premier Fidel Castro today named a high-powered commerce mission to go to Canada in an effort to expand trade between the two countries.

Makeup of the mission, whose departure date was undisclosed, suggested that Cuba may be after a badly-needed dollar loan. Castro's dollar reserves virtually are exhausted and Cuba technically would be in the red if it paid up outstanding obligations.

With the U.S. sugar market closed to Cuba, the dollar earning future is dark.

Minister of Economy Regino Boti was named to preside over the 11-member delegation. It includes three officials from the Bank of Foreign Commerce, which handles all imports, and two from the National Bank of Cuba, including consultant Dr. Jose Miguel Irujo Gamio.

Also named to the delegation was the chief of the national tourism institute, Badillo Castellanos Garcia. His inclusion hinted at efforts to find a new market in Canada for Cuba's empty resorts.

BANK IN HOLE

It was disclosed Tuesday that the National Bank of Cuba's balance statement listed uncommitted gold and dollar reserves on Oct. 31 at $91,100,000 against outstanding obligations of $91,600,000.

Castro apparently hopes Canada will supplant the United States in trade relations. Canadian banks in Cuba Continued on Page 6

Promotion Post For Dukowski

Report that retiring Arena manager Joe Dukowski would be offered a new job at the Blanshard Street rink — at a reduced salary and down-graded in rank — was being circulated today following a series of emergency meetings by Victoria's Arena Commission.

Although commissioners would not talk to the press, pending submission of their report to Mayor Percy Scurrell Friday, outlines of their new, "compromise" proposal were being widely discussed at press-time today.

Commission chairman Frank Mulliner would neither confirm nor deny the outline of the proposal.

WYATT PLAN

On reliable authority, The Times learned that the document, being hammered out today after long and bitter debate Tuesday, was essentially the work of city manager C. C. Wyatt and suggested:

● That he, Wyatt, serve as secretary of the Commission. (Mr. Wyatt is at present a non-voting member of the commission).

● That arena manager Joe Dukowski be engaged as "building and promotions manager," with his salary cut from $10,400 annually to $6,000;

● That a new arena manager be hired at $7,500 a year;

● That Kenneth Noakes, office manager, and the other five employees whose resignation inspired the six-weeks investigation into Arena discord, be re-hired en bloc.

In summary, what city manager Wyatt proposed was a "package deal" which would bring all former employees back into the arena, under a new manager, and at an added cost of $3,100.

"PUNCH IN NOSE"

Contacted by The Times, disident Commissioner Courtney Haddock refused to confirm or deny that "bitter words" had ensued on receipt of the proposal.

(The Times learned that, at one point in the debate, city manager Wyatt said he was capable of administering "a punch in the nose," and walked out of the meeting.)

(It is further understood that arguments over the proposal lasted more than two hours, but ended in all commissioners signing the recommendation for council.)

Mr. Haddock said Tuesday evening:

"I can't talk about it."

"It's up to the mayor and council now."

"I am somewhat mollified. I got most of what I wanted."

(Mr. Haddock has taken the stand from the outset that the six employees who resigned in

U.S. ENDS CARIBBEAN NAVAL PATROL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced today that the naval patrol off Guatemala and Nicaragua has been withdrawn because the danger of Communist-aided revolts in those countries has passed.

Egypt, Ceylon Troops Quit Congo Force

By The Canadian Press
The United Arab Republic and Ceylon decided today to withdraw their soldiers from the United Nations force in the Congo.

In Cairo, a source at President Nasser's office said the decision to withdraw the 520 U.A.R. troops was made after Congolese President Kasavubu severed diplomatic relations last week, charging the U.A.R. with interference in his country's internal affairs.

The decision to pull out Ceylon's token contingent of 11 men was taken at a cabinet meeting in Colombo today as a gesture of disapproval towards the UN's handling of the Congo situation.

Ghana already has withdrawn a police force sent to Leopoldville and legislators in the Ghanaian capital of Accra today were demanding the recall of 2,400 troops, the largest single contingent in the Congo.

More than a dozen countries have sent a total of about 15,000 troops to make up the UN force in the Congo, including 272 Canadian Army personnel.

'Get Out and Vote' Scurrah's Appeal

Greater Victoria voters go to the polls Thursday to cast ballots in civic elections in Victoria, Saanich, Central Saanich and Oak Bay.

Lineup of city-candidates is carried on Page 16 and those in Central Saanich on Page 21.

Voting hours will be 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mayor Percy Scurrell issued an appeal for "every voter who is not actually on the sick list" to turn out.

He urged Victorians to prove the city is not faced with the dangers of public apathy that has hit civic governments across Canada.

Junior Chamber of Commerce said the first six women to cast votes at the city polling station, Government and Cormoran, will be given corsages. The first six men will receive boutonnières and all voters will be offered a tag reading "I've voted — have you?"

'Bread and Butter' Courses Boom

By JOHN MIKA

Greater Victoria night school—which has been handling droves of adults interested in recreational and craft subjects—is booming in a new direction this year.

Academic subjects are proving as magnetic as practical courses with result that high school matriculation subjects have drawn 376 registrations—compared with 72 persons who wrote the examinations last year.

Reason for the tremendous increase is a growing awareness by persons who left high school early that a matriculation certificate can make a big difference in the kind of job they can get and sometimes in whether they can get a job at all.

Result is that Shakespeare and algebra have become "bread and butter" subjects at night school while carpentry classes attract the hobbyist.

'Can't Get Jobs'

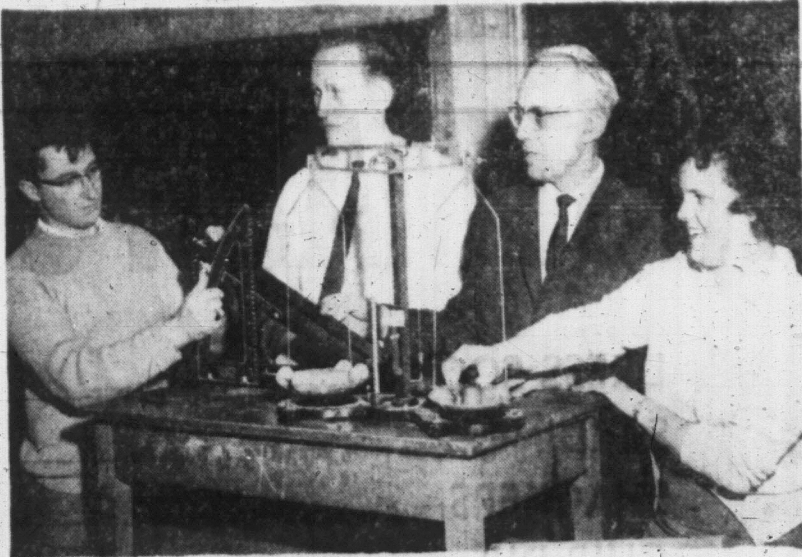

"For years we have been putting on one or two matriculation subjects and have found only a lukewarm response," says Allan Batey, principal of Greater Victoria School Board's night division.

"This year we decided to broaden the program because more and more people are finding they can't get jobs without matriculation.

"Now, most of the classes have overflowed so that we have to put them into two groups and we practically have to use a shoe-horn to squeeze them into the physics laboratory."

Here's Breakdown

Here's how the enrollment breaks down: 22 students in English 10 and 20; 12 in English 30; 60 in English Literature 40 and 64 in English Language 40; 35 in French 10 and 20; 27

All of these are taught at Victoria High School. A major encouragement to the part-time students is the provincial department of education's "interrupted program" designed for just their needs.

It emphasizes the final-year courses that count in matriculation so that it is possible at night school—as it is not in day school—for an adult to miss some of the prerequisites to Grade XII subjects and still earn his matriculation by passing the final examinations.

The night school students write exactly the same matriculation examinations as day school students and their papers are marked by the same people.

Those pursuing the interrupted program courses are all working towards the "university entrance" matriculation standing.

But there are many more adults who lack a matriculation certificate who have partial credits in the high school's "general program" courses and they are expected to flock back to night school too when subjects are offered for them.

"This is under-consideration by the department now and is in the offing," said Mr. Batey. "We certainly will offer the general program subjects as soon as they are approved on the interrupted basis.

More to Come "When that happens we will have an even bigger increase in night school students, but for those who are interested, there is no need to wait.

"Many of the subjects we now offer can be used for either university entrance or general program matriculation. The sooner they start the sooner they can finish."

Courses average about $15 each in cost and involve one class a week. But there is plenty of homework assigned and students are discouraged from taking more than one or two courses a year.

They're Keen

Mr. Batey said the night school students are very keen on their studies.

"Although most of them are in the young adult category, they are older than the average high school student and have had a taste of the world outside."

"When they find that they are handicapped by incomplete education, they come back to the classroom with a 'bread and butter' attitude. For another thing, they've had to pay for the courses and they have no desire to waste the time."

'MOON FLASHES FALSE SIGNAL OF AIR ATTACK

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) The Strategic Air Command said today the moon fooled electronic defense gadgetry into thinking it was a missile attack.

But a quick check uncovered the error and there was no alert of SAC's world-wide bomber and missile force, a spokesman said.

The previously unreported incident occurred Oct. 5. SAC said computers at the Ballistics Missile Early Warning System station at Thule, Greenland, "mistook radar" signals bounced off the moon as coming from a missile approaching the United States from Russia.

The signal was flashed on a screen in SAC's underground control centre. A check disclosed the error almost immediately—in less than 60 seconds," the spokesman said.

The indictment said Sun Valley's operating funds came from four Detroit Teamster locals—Truck Drivers No. 299, Food and Beverage Drivers No. 337, Automobile Drivers No. 376 and Teamsters Joint Council 43.

SEE PLAN TO DEFAUD The grand jury charged that Hoffa, Lower and McCarthy schemed to defraud these four Teamster units, and falsely represented that Sun Valley was sponsored by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, whereas it was owned, operated and controlled by Hoffa and Lower.

Hoffa and Lower were accused of using Sun Valley funds for their personal use.

The grand jury said the land development was represented as an ideal location for retired Teamsters and that building lots were advertised as being "all on high, dry and rolling land, whereas in fact many of the lots offered and sold were so low and permeated with water as to make them unsuitable for construction of homes and dwellings."

According to the indictment, Hoffa urged Teamster locals and members to co-operate in promotion of Sun Valley and that Hoffa and Lower sold lots acquired for about $18 each to union members and others at prices ranging from $150 to more than $1,000.

The frauds charged are punishable by imprisonment of up to five years and a fine of up to $1,000 or both on each count.

The justice department announced that Lower had been taken into custody at Detroit. The others at that time were still at large.
